6th Sunday of Easter May 21, 2017

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Blessed Mother Parish Would Like to Welcome All New Parishioners

With a welcome brunch Sunday, May 21st immediately following the 10:00am Mass. Everyone is invited.

Prayers Needed

Steve and his wife, Leigh Anne, daughter Vivian (8th grade at OCMS), son Jack (6th grade at OC 4/6 campus) are members of Immaculate Parish. Steve is recovering and anticipates being in Indianapolis for at least 3 weeks for medical care. A benefit account has been set up at First Security Bank for Steve Terry. Donation checks need to be made to "Steve Terry"- in the memo line, write "benefit account" so the money is placed in the correct account. All prayers, help, and donations are appreciated!

A Note from your DRE...

In this 6th Sunday of Easter from the Gospel of John 14:15, Jesus says, "if you love me, you will keep my commandments". Those commandments help keep us grounded in our faith. It's been years since we learned those commandments—some more than others. Can you remember all of them? Can you remember them in the correct order? Did you know that the commandments are given to us twice in sacred scripture for different reasons? Do you know where to find them?

Now that the K-8th grade religious education program has ended for the school year, I'm going to write a note about a commandment each week, and include some information from the catechism about how they are still applicable to our lives.

So, let's start with the list.

- (1) I am the LORD your God, You shall not have other gods beside me.
- (2) You shall not invoke the name of the LORD, your God, in vain.
- (3) Remember the Sabbath day—keep it holy.
- (4) Honor your father and your mother.
- (5) You shall not kill.
- (6) You shall not commit adultery.
- (7) You shall not steal.
- (8) You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
- (9) You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
- (10) You shall not covet your neighbor's house or belongings (goods).

Did you get them in the correct order? The two locations in the Bible are from Exodus Chapter 20 and Deuteronomy Chapter 5, with the former placing 'neighbor's house' before 'neighbor's wife'. I pray your week be filled with joy.

Laugh of the Week

An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening of religious service when she was startled by an intruder. As she caught the man in the act of robbing her home, she yelled, "stop—Acts 2:38!" (...turn from your sin...) The burglar stopped dead in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done.

As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell scripture to you."

"Scripture?" replied the burglar, "She said she had an AXE and two 38's!"

Join us at Monte Cassino Shrine each Sunday in May

The pilgrimages begin at 2 p.m. Central Time with an opening hymn and a short sermon, followed by a rosary procession. The service ends with the Litany of the Blessed Virgin and a hymn.

Forming Good Stewards

John 14:15-21

"Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me."

Jesus knew that after he ascended to heaven many would attempt to complicate his existence, mission and message. He was aware that from the time of Moses people tried to avoid or deny the nature of God and his simple command to love God and to love other as we love ourselves. He knew that if we can be convinced that love of God and others is complicated, we would get discouraged and give up. He anticipated that some would claim to have superior and exclusive knowledge of how to love God in order to gain control over the mind and lives of others. Jesus assured us that loving God by understanding and observing his commandments, and loving others, is not complicated, but it can be difficult. It requires that we do right, not just look right; do good, not just feel good. It means we must eliminate evil in our lives and challenge the evil in our world, our community, our work place, our home. That can be inconvenient, unpleasant and risky. And that takes love.

On June 6-8, 2017, the Diocese of Owensboro will host a workshop titled "Building Intercultural Competence for Ministers," held at Mount St. Joseph Conference and Retreat Center in Maple Mount. Participants will learn how to better frame issues of diversity in terms of the Church's identity and mission to evangelize; seek an understanding of culture and how it works; develop intercultural communication skills in pastoral settings; expand one's knowledge of the obstacles which impede effective intercultural relations; and foster ecclesial integration rather than assimilation in church settings, with a spirituality of reconciliation and mission. The workshop cost is $30 and includes all materials and meals. Lodging is also available at the retreat center for $30/night. Learn more at owensborodiocese.org/bicmworkshop/.
