27th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 8, 2017

27th SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures:
*The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone...?*"
- Mt 21:42ab

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Welcome to Blessed Mother Catholic Church

Half Way There!!!

We are in the process of trying to raise about $2,800 to enable some of our high school youth to attend the National Catholic Youth Conference this November in Indianapolis. The Conference gathers about 40,000 Catholic youth from across the country, and includes well known speakers, workshops on our faith, and Catholic Music Concerts. If you can help us in our fundraising efforts, please contact the office. Many thanks to those of you who have contributed thus far.

Discussion Series

Please join us for a discussion on Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love) of the Holy Father, Francis. To Bishops, Priests and Deacons, Consecrated persons, Christian married couples and all the Lay faithful. On the love in the family. Discussion to be led by Deacon Brett Mills. Tues. Sept. 26, 7– 8:30 PM, Tues. Oct. 17, 7– 8:30 PM & Tues. Nov. 14, 7– 8:30 PM. Parish Center Youth Room.

Tri Mission

October 23, 24, 25

Time and time again, God gives us opportunities and grace to begin anew. He also places people in our lives to walk "that road" with us. Just as we have our supportive priests at Blessed Mother, the Lord is also sending Father John Judie to conduct our October Tri Mission. Father Judie's life is largely spent on the speaking circuit, and he has the reputation for "packing the churches." Our Mission theme, "Living Fully for Jesus," carries a message for ALL, and each 6:30-8:00 PM Mission night offers a varied program. Please mark these three dates on your calendar and reap the benefits of God speaking to us through Father Judie's messages:

October 23 - St. Stephens - emphasis on the Youth
October 24 - Blessed Mother - emphasis on the Family
October 25 - Sts. Joseph and Paul - emphasis on Discipleship

Thank you to all who donated their time, labor and equipment and to the one who donated the plants for the rectory landscaping project. May you and the parish enjoy the fruits of your labor as the new plants take root and grow. God bless you. Your generosity is a wonderful gift and an inspiring example.

A note from your DRE...

From the Gospel of Matthew Chapter 21 this week, Jesus gives us the familiar parable of the landowner planting a vineyard, leasing it to tenants, and sending servants and finally his son to reap its produce. The landowner is God, the tenants are the leaders of Israel, the sent servants are the prophets, and the son is Jesus. In the parable, after the tenants beat and kill the servants, the landowner says, "They will respect my son." As we know, they also kill the son. The treatment of the son seems desperate and illogical. What could the tenants have hoped to gain? Jesus then proclaims, "the stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

Have we ever rejected Jesus? Perhaps not intentionally, but as human beings with concupiscence - the inclination to sin - we have. Participate in the sacraments, encounter Christ, and be an example of excellence.

Since 1972, October has been acknowledged as Respect for Life month, dedicated to increasing a greater culture of life through education, public policy, and prayer. For each week in October, I'll include a post about what the Catholic Church teaches on the sanctity and dignity of human life. Thus, on the subject of abortion, CCC 2271, "Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion." CCC 2270, "Human life must be respected and protected from the moment of conception." Faith, science, and reason all concur that human life begins at conception. Sadly, abortion has been practiced in society throughout history. While this is a grave offence, CCC 2272, "The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy." Thus, if a person has cooperated in procuring an abortion, God's mercy is available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Both K-8 Religious Education and RCIA are not in session this Sunday for Fall Break. The home page of the church website has been and will be updated monthly with a list of upcoming events at the Parish. Sunday, October 15 is Scripture Sunday. Have you ever tried Lectio Divina? Since the 12th Century, this Latin term for "divine reading", describes a way of reading the Scriptures where we gradually let go of our own agenda and open ourselves to what God wants to say to us. The first stage is to read the scripture, next is to reflect, third is to respond, and fourth is to rest. There are bookmarks at the doors of church to insert in your Bible and help you to try this method of reading scripture. If you have questions about Lectio Divina, any of our Religious Education programs, or faith formation needs, please let me know.

Laugh of the Week

Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company. One day the dog died and Muldoon went to his parish priest and asked, "Father, me dog is dead, could ya' be sayin' a mass for the poor creature?" Father Patrick replied, "I'm afraid not; we cannot have services for an animal in the church. There are some Baptists down the lane, there's no tellin' what they believe. Maybe they'll do something for the creature." Muldoon said, "I'll go right away Father, do you think $5,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?" Father Patrick exclaimed, "Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why did ya' not tell me the dog was Catholic?"

What Is A Deacon?

A Ministry Of Service

The call to be a deacon is a Call to serve. The symbol of the ministry of the deacon is the basin and towel—the items Jesus used when he washed the feet of the apostles, illustrating how we are called to love and serve others. In particular, permanent deacons have a special ministry to serve those in need—the hungry, homeless, sick, in prison, or immigrants. He sees that they are not forgotten or excluded from the liturgical and communal life of the Church. Deacons are assigned by the bishop to ministries for which the bishop perceives a great need and for which the deacon may have special gifts or talents. Most often, this will be within a parish setting, just as most priests serve in a parish. Once assigned to the parish, the deacon ministers under the immediate supervision of the pastor.

As Deacon Brett Mills' responsibilities become more, Deacon Bill Bach's public ministry will become less. We would like to thank Deacon Bill for his five years of service and ministry. Bishop Medley stated, "He will be remembered as one of our pioneers who opened the doors for men who would follow and make great contributions to the Church."

Many Thanks

To the youth group and to all those who helped make our block party a success! We had beautiful weather and many came out to decorate pumpkins, play games and enjoy chili and hot dogs.

Scripture Sunday 2017

Mark your calendar for Scripture Sunday 2017 in the Diocese of Owensboro! In Pope Francis' apostolic letter, Misericordia et misera, he explained that the Year of Mercy reminds us that mercy isn't only for a specially-designated year, but is part of the ongoing life of the Church. He said it would be a good idea if "every Christian community, on one Sunday of the liturgical year, could renew its efforts to make the Sacred Scriptures better known." Following up on Pope Francis' suggestion, Bishop William F. Medley has designated the third Sunday of October as Scripture Sunday in the Diocese of Owensboro. This year it falls on Sunday, October 15. Stay tuned for more information, and be sure to visit owensborodiocese.org/scripturesunday

Safe Environment

The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities: local law enforcement (270-687-8888 / or 270-685-8444_) or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report to the diocese abuse by church personnel (paid or volunteer) either past or present, please call the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at this confidential phone line: 270-852-8380. The Diocese of Owensboro sexual abuse policy is available at this parish in the back of church, or in the parish office and also on the diocesan web site (<https://owensborodiocese.org/safe>).

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 8, 2017

“Have no anxiety at all, but by prayer and thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.”

As we look to the future of our Church, there can be a temptation to grow anxious about the lack of vocations. St. Paul challenges us to have a different attitude. Make a commitment to pray daily that young men have the courage to respond to God’s call to the vocation of Holy Priesthood. “Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.” If you feel called to serve God and the Church as a Catholic Priest, contact the Diocese of Owensboro Office of Vocations: 270-683-1545, www.owensborovocations.com or jason.mcclure@pastoral.org
