18th Sunday in Ordinary Time August 5, 2018

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope.
When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says
the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

A note from your DRE...

From the Gospel of John Chapter 6 this week, we hear that the crowd could not find Jesus, and "they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for [him]." While John Chapter 6 is usually about the Bread of Life discourse, this Scripture passage challenged me. Have I become complacent with my Faith? According to Google, my house is 1.7 miles away from the Church which is a 5 minute car ride or a 33 minute walk. The Sea of Galilee is about 13 miles long, 8 miles wide, and the boat ride would have taken 2 hours to cross the water. That would be by sailing or paddling with oars as opposed to a motorboat. I went kayaking on the ocean this summer, and was exhausted after the hour time limit. So, not only is distance the challenge, but I know Jesus is here at the Church during weekday Mass or exposed during Eucharistic Adoration. These "crowds" weren't really sure where Jesus went, but they went on an exhausting journey to search for Him. I pray this week that our actions reflect our effort in seeking Jesus.

After summer break, it is good to be back posting again. Thank you to Deacon Brett Mills for posting a weekly commentary in my absence. If you have questions about any of our Religious Education programs or faith formation needs, please let me know.

Laugh of the Week

Seven-year-old Johnny had been standing in the church narthex and examining an impressively large brass plaque for some time. Seeing the boy's interest, the pastor walked up and stood beside Johnny. "So, what do you think of this plaque, young man?" "What is it?" Johnny asked. "Well, Son, these are all the people who have died in the service," replied the pastor. Soberly the child looked up at the pastor, "Which service, sir, morning or evening?"

Blessed Mother's Family Life/ Social Outreach Committee has kicked off it's annual Back To School Supply Drive and will run through the weekend of August 4th & 5th. 2018-2020 Spiritual Direction Training Program - Register by Aug. 31

Applications are being accepted for the next Spiritual Direction Training Program, which will begin the week of Oct. 15 at Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center. The two-year program consists of four weekly training sessions each year. This program prepares participants for the ministry of spiritual direction from a Catholic perspective and in the spirit of the Ursuline founder, Saint Angela Merici. During each of the eight weeks, participants enter into study, reflection and prayer around a topic fundamental to the understanding and practice of spiritual direction. Participants receive intense training by a coordinating team of religious sisters and educators. Attendance is required to receive certification as a spiritual director. Close to 50 individuals from across the U.S. have completed the program. For more information, contact Sister Mary Matthias Ward at 270-229-0200 mary.ward@maplemount.org. The registration deadline is Aug. 31.

The Joy of Holiness in the Midst of Life!

Thursday, August 9, 2018

6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

Fr. John Vaughan Community Center (lower level of the church) Take time to discover Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation, Rejoice and Be Glad, on the call to holiness. How does one grow in holiness in the midst of one's everyday life? The mission of every Christian includes the path of holiness, small gestures of great love, and a spirituality of work that can transform our ordinariness into moments of transforming grace. The evening will include a presentation, time for quiet reflection, and faith sharing. Pope Francis advises, "Do not be afraid of holiness. It will take away none of your energy, vitality or joy. On the contrary, you will become what the Father had in mind when he created you, and you will be faithful to your deepest self." (#32).

Please register so we can have an accurate count for handouts. 270/683-6525 or beni.howell@pastoral.org
