28th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 14, 2018

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Excerpts from the Lctionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you,
Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope.
When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says
the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

A note from your DRE...

From the Gospel of Mark Chapter 10 this week, Jesus is asked what someone must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus says to follow the Commandments and then "sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." So, does that apply to us? In the Old Testament, having wealth was considered a sign of God's blessing. This same concept is still presented today as the "prosperity gospel" in some other ecclesial communities. That "prosperity gospel" goes two ways – if you are wealthy, then God favors you; or if you give more money to the Church, then God will give you more wealth. That was the challenge presented to Jesus in the Gospel; how can someone "earn" entrance into Heaven. Jesus' response to sell everything is to remove the distractions in life that are making one self-dependent instead of relying on God. It is only by God's grace that we can make it to Heaven. I pray this week that we continue to develop that relationship with God and experience abundant life now and eternally.

Religious Education and RCIA have an extended leave with school Fall break and Priest Appreciation Sunday/ Block Party. Before the break, the RCIA candidates and catechumens considered the topics of Covenant history; Trinity; Tradition, Scripture, and Magisterium; and the Kingdom of God. Please pray for them in this process. If you have questions about any of our Religious Education programs or faith formation needs, please let me know.

I would like to introduce a new program here at Blessed Mother Church. We will meet on Wednesdays from 6 to 7 PM in the St. John Bosco Room in the Parish Hall. The start date will be Wednesday October 17.

Video Lending Library

Another new program is our video lending library. We have offered many programs over the years and realize that you may not have been available during those times. If you go to our website under Faith Formation, you will find a list of programs available in CD, DVD, or VHS format, some of which also have study guides available. Once you find a movie or program you like, call or email to reserve your copy and make arrangements to pick it up at the office during the week or before Mass on Sunday. Go to <http://www.blessedmotherchurch.com/video-library> for more information.

Scripture Sunday | Favorite Verses from Psalms

Laugh of the Week

Father O'Malley was driving down to Boston when he got stopped for speeding in Medford. The highway patrol officer smelled alcohol on the priest's breath and then saw an empty wine bottle on the floor of the car. He said, "Father, have you been drinking?" "Only water," replied Father O'Malley. The policeman asked, "Then how come I smell wine?" Father O'Malley looked at the bottle and said, "Good Lord!" He's done it again."

Members of Blessed Mother Parish have always been generous in helping the poor in our community by donating to our parish's St. Vincent DePaul Society. With the rising number of people in our area in need of utility assistance, our St. Vincent DePaul is struggling financially to assist those in need.
