THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCC

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope.
When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says
the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

The Deacon's Discourse

In rules #5 through #8, St. Ignatius of Loyola generally addresses spiritual desolation and how to respond to it:

Rule 5: In spiritual desolation never make a change from spiritual decisions or habits adopted before the spiritual desolation began.

Rule 6: Actively resist spiritual desolation by making prayers of petition to God, meditating on the genuine and ongoing presence of God, examining and addressing the immediate cause of the desolation, and doing penance in direct opposition to desolate impulses.

Rule 7: Consider spiritual desolation from God's perspective. God does not cause it, but allows spiritual desolation as a trial. God remains present and never takes away sufficient grace to accept Salvation. Since God remains, the opportunity in spiritual desolation is to grow better at resisting spiritual desolation by resisting it.

Rule 8: Patiently bear the loss of spiritual consolation and patiently practice resisting the spiritual desolation to ease the return of spiritual consolations. A normal spiritual life is a life-long alternation of spiritual consolation and spiritual desolation of various durations.

The essential concepts in these four rules are: the never of #5; resist (#6); consider (#7); and normal (#8). No one's too low to work through desolation.

The Ministry of Praise invites the sick, elderly and homebound to offer their prayers and sufferings for the needs of their parish. We would like to offer this ministry here at Blessed Mother Church. If you would like to help organize this ministry, we will meet on Thursday, June 20th at 1:30 PM in the parish center. If you would like to learn more about this ministry, you may speak to Fr. Ray Clark or Cyndi Vaughan at the parish offices, 270-683-8444.

Thank you for your generosity. Following are the totals for the Disciples Response Fund Appeal for our parish as of May 17

Jail Ministry

"When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you? And the king will reply, Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." These words from Matthew 25:39-40, remind us that we need to bring the hope of Jesus to jail inmates. Each Sunday afternoon, teams of at least two people visit the men and women inmates at the Daviess County Detention Center, sharing Scripture, prayer and encouragement that God has not forgotten them. New members are needed to make one visit per month. Please prayerfully consider participating in this wonderful ministry. Men can contact Father Ray Clark at 270-231-1705. Women can contact Joy Bach at 270-685-3743, or 270-993-6195.

Laugh of the Week

A priest, a minister and a rabbi are discussing when life begins. The priest says, "It begins at conception". The minister says, "Life begins at 24 weeks gestation". The rabbi says, "You are both wrong, Life begins when the kids move out of the house and the dog dies."
