30th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.'" - Lk 18:13

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

A note from your DRE...

On this 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time from the Gospel of Luke Chapter 18, Jesus tells us a familiar parable about “those who were convinced of their own righteousness.” Jesus then tells us about the Pharisee who exalts himself while the tax collector who humbles himself. Are we righteous? Or, am I convinced of my own righteousness? What does that even mean? As Catholics, we believe God initiates our salvation through grace. We cannot earn righteousness by our own efforts, only when we have faith in Jesus, and perform Corporal and Spiritual works of mercy in obedience in God. Can you name all the works of mercy? Maybe more importantly, are you performing them? The Corporal works of mercy are feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, visit the sick, visit the prisoners, and bury the dead. You may also know “clothe the naked” as give alms to the poor. The Spiritual works of mercy are counseling the doubtful, instructing the ignorant, admonishing the sinner, comforting the sorrowful, forgiving injuries, bearing wrongs patiently, and praying for the living and the dead. It sure takes a lot to be righteous, which is why we cannot do it on our own. Let us pray this day we ask God for the grace to perform acts of mercy towards each other.

October seems to be over so fast. For those of you who take a Fall Break vacation, I hope you enjoyed it. This is a really busy week with Priest Appreciation Sunday, Halloween costumes and trick-or-treating, All Saint’s Day, and All Soul’s Day. The Solemnity of All Saints on Friday is a Holy Day of Obligation, and Mass times are 9 AM, 12 PM, and 6 PM. Religious Education and RCIA are out this Sunday to join in fellowship with the Parish. Wednesday 6 PM Bible Study is in session this week. If you have questions about any of our Religious Education programs or faith formation needs, please let me know.

Video Lending Library

Check out the bulletin boards in the back of Church, a list in the office, or our website at <http://www.blessedmotherchurch.com/video-library> for a list of programs in CD, DVD, or VHS format. ### Jail Ministry

“When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you? And the king will reply, Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.” These words from Matthew 25:39-40, remind us that we need to bring the hope of Jesus to jail inmates. Each Sunday afternoon, teams of at least two people visit the men and women inmates at the Daviess County Detention Center, sharing Scripture, prayer and encouragement that God has not forgotten them. New members are needed to make one visit per month. Please prayerfully consider participating in this wonderful ministry. Men can contact Father Ray Clark at 270-231-1705. Women can contact Joy Bach at 270-685-3743, or 270-993-6195.

Please visit our website at <http://www.blessedmotherchurch.com/> to find forms, handbooks, and/or information to register for any of our programs.

Laugh of the Week

A photographer goes to a haunted castle determined to get a picture of a ghost on Halloween. The ghost he encounters turns out to be friendly and poses for a snapshot. The happy photographer later downloads his photos and finds that the photos are underexposed and completely blank.

Moral of the story: The spirit is willing, but the flash is weak.

"SEASONS OF DISCIPLESHIP" TRI-PARISH MISSION NOVEMBER 11-13

Our Mission presenters, Father Matt O'Donnell, and Father Brad Zamora, are highly sought after speakers. Hearing their interchange of the spoken word as well as the sung word/yes, Father Matt, a member of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians, uses music to deepen his message during the Service) provides a dimension not seen in our four previous Tri-Parish Missions.

Bringing Gospel stories alive through story and song sets us on a discipleship journey assuring us that we are loved through baptism while remembering that God's love never fails us; we are healed through Reconciliation giving us the opportunity to experience new life, and through the Holy Spirit we can become ministers of healing; we are anointed because as disciples of Christ, we are called to give the best gift we have – our very lives. Our words and actions often say, "Not me, Lord" when we should say, "Use me, Lord. Help me make a difference in my own life and the lives of others." The stories of the Gospel will come alive through story and song as we embark on a journey of discipleship to remind us that we are LOVED, HEALED, and ANOINTED.

Our Tri-Parish Mission affords us an opportunity to set aside some time to root ourselves more deeply in our relationship with Christ and challenges us to live our lives every day rooted in God's love. Please come and join with fellow Catholics and others interested in learning more about Catholic teachings and beliefs. The doors of our three churches will be open to feed your soul, and tasty treats will be available after each Service to feed the body too.

Safe Environment

The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities: local law enforcement (270-687-8888 / or 270-685-8444_) or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report to the diocese abuse by church personnel (paid or volunteer) either past or present, please call the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at this confidential phone line: 270-852-8380. The Diocese of Owensboro sexual abuse policy is available at this parish in the back of church, or in the parish office and also on the diocesan web site (https://owensborodiocese.org/safe).
