3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread. —Lk 24:35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

April 26, 2020
Third Sunday of Easter
Luke 24:13-35

“And it happened that, while he was with them at the table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them.”

When Jesus encountered two disciples on the road to Emmaus it is clear that they did not understand all he had endured. He bluntly tells them, “Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!” Despite his disappointment he did not abandon the two disciples, but “beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures.” To paraphrase St. Augustin, Jesus is hidden in the Old Testament, and revealed in the New. How fortunate we are to have the faith of the apostles, the many disciples who followed them, and billions of Christians over two thousand years who believed that Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s promise of salvation, forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Are we grateful for the gift of their faith? Do we accept and nurture our faith by daily or frequently reading God’s Word revealed to us in the Old and New Testaments? When is the last time we read Sacred Scripture and listened for God to speak to us?

A note from your DRE...

On this 3rd Sunday of Easter from the Gospel of Luke Chapter 24, Jesus joins two disciples on the road to Emmaus following His Resurrection. After teaching them the Scriptures, and offering the Eucharist, the disciples said, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" The road to Emmaus is similar to our Mass today. First, we hear the Scriptures, then we are taught about the Scriptures, then we receive the Eucharist, and then we are sent to proclaim the good news to others. Let us pray this day that we recognize Jesus walking along side us.

In this COVID19 time, I'm still in the office answering emails and phone calls. I received a call from someone inquiring about RCIA, and I explained the current situation. As we continued the conversation, this person went on to ask what they could be doing in the interim, and asked me how to pray. Well, I immediately went into catechist mode and began teaching. It was only after the conversation that I was humbled as to what an enormous opportunity that was. One of the disciples asked Jesus that question. Thankfully, since I knew how Jesus responded (Luke 11:1-4), I provided the same information.

How do I pray? This is some of the information I shared in that conversation and that we also teach in RCIA. I use the acronym FAITH, which means to say a pray of Forgiveness, Adoration, Intercession, Thanksgiving, and to Hear the Word of God. I try to pray for an hour a day, using a combination of memorized prayers (Confiteor, Act of Contrition, Angelus, and Lord's Prayer), meditation, contemplative prayer, and reading the Scriptures. This works for me, but it may not work for you. Ultimately, our prayer life is our relationship with God. How does your relationship with God compare to other relationships in your life? Let us pray for mercy for ourselves and others as we abundantly live through time.

Please contact us for any questions about our Religious Education programs or faith formation needs.

The Office of Worship has created a resource for prayer at home during the Coronavirus outbreak called the Diocese of Owensboro Prayer Companion. In addition, each week that Mass is suspended, they will be sharing an adapted Liturgy of the Word for use by the faithful at home that is specific to each Sunday. Each week's Liturgy of the Word will include a short reflection on the readings by one of our Diocesan Priests. Each resource is in letter-size for easy printing for parishes or for those at home. They are will be available under the Office of Worship on the Diocese of Owensboro's website on the following page: <https://owensborodiocese.org/resources-for-prayer-at-home/>.

Outreach to the Unaffiliated

On our website and FB page, there is an excellent YouTube video from the USCCB. This resource explores questions related to the increasing number of people who identify as religiously unaffiliated, and it highlights five effective avenues for reaching out to them. The median age of individuals who leave the Catholic Church is 13!!! Please watch the 25 minute video and reach out to others who have left the Church or do not believe in God. Then, help them contact Fr Mike, Fr Jamie, or Norm Hayden, DRE to ask questions about their Faith.

Please visit our website at <http://www.blessedmotherchurch.com/> to find forms, handbooks, and/or information to register for any of our programs.

Laugh of the Week

A kindergarten teacher asked her students to bring something related to their faith to class. At the appropriate time she asked the students to come forward and share with the rest of the students.

The first child said, "I am Muslim and this is my prayer rug."

The second child said, "I am Jewish and this is my Star of David."

The third child said, "I am Catholic and this is my rosary."

The final child said, "I am a Baptist and this is my casserole dish."

Grace Marriage @ Home

Grace Marriage will be providing one "Grace Marriage @ Home" lesson per week for the next month or so. Couples watch an 8-10 minute teaching video and use a downloadable worksheet to apply the principles to their relationship. It takes about 30-45 minutes a week of undistracted time as a couple to go through each lesson.

Here are the first two sessions:

Session One "Grace Based Marriage"

You might be familiar with the grace-based vs. performance-based marriage teaching but we want to reach couples who may not have heard this. The reality is, we can never revisit grace enough. The grace of God through Christ is the foundation of the Christian experience, but what does grace look like in marriage? How can our marriages reflect the Gospel? That's exactly what we'll walk through in this session of GraceMarriage@home.

<https://www.gracemarriage.com/grace-marriage-at-home-the-grace-based-marriage/>

Session Two "I Would Have Never"

With couples experiencing so much negative news, it's important that we visit a lesson on gratitude. This fun lesson will have you reflect on your marriage and look at all the things you would have never experienced, character traits you have developed, or even foods you may not have tried if it had not been for your spouse. This should be a fun time of remembrance and celebration of the good things the Lord has done in your lives.

Pope Francis's Prayer to Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

From Death to New Life

We pray for the repose of the souls of Nancy Pate, Aria Higdon, Phil Hagan. May they share in the Resurrection of the Lord! Please pray for the families.

Rest in Peace

In these dark days, we invite all Catholics of Western Kentucky to engage in a project meant to communicate faith and hope to our neighbors and be a sign of encouragement and support to all who are suffering.

Beginning at 8:00 PM on April 11, Holy Saturday, and through May 31, Pentecost Sunday, use the symbol of light as an outward sign in some way on your property as a witness to all of the prayers burning in our hearts and as a reminder that the light has come into our world and has conquered even death.

Bring out the Christmas lights you have stored away. Wrap a strand around a door or window, visible to all who pass. Place a flower wreath on a door and weave through it a strand of light. Two stands of lights can be used to form a cross on a garage door. Strings of light can be woven through bushes, or even a small tree. The candles you put in your windows at Christmas can be placed there once again. Be creative!

Each night, as you "turn on the lights", you might also light a candle and say a prayer to the one "who sheds his peaceful light on all humanity" (the Exsultet from the Easter Vigil) for an end to the pandemic. Let's unite with one another in prayer this Easter season and remind one another and our neighbors that we are never beyond the reach of God. Let's light up the world! Share your pictures on social media and use the hashtag: #EasterLightsKY

For Worship At Home With Children

After subscribing and purchase, they send a link you can share through social media each week.
