20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith!
Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour. - Mt 15:28

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCD

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope.
When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says
the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

The comedian Steven Wright would tell his audiences that he experienced “vu ja de,” the sense that “None of this has ever happened before.” That applies to everyday life and weekly religious practice since mid-March of this year.

For some child or neophyte somewhere around us, the conditions that we have to worship in right now are becoming their “good old days” of Catholic practice. Years from now there may be a generation saying, “Sure, Mass today is OK, but there was something special about having to wear masks and keep a certain distance.”

Each generation in the life of the Church has treasured their Catholic worship as the NOW which is always the Church at its best. Each generation, in its humanity, has also been tempted to deny that the Church's NOW moves on to continually perfect the signs of the time. Those challenged by the current restrictions may not see these days in the same way that the “children of physical distancing” might. Still, find and acknowledge enough of the Church's glorious NOW in our present circumstances to affirm that God can and does work all things for the good.

At this time, it is unknown if a reception following the Mass can be offered.

Sacraments for Class of 2020-2021

Information on the Sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Communion, and Confirmation are posted on the website. Handbooks are printed and available at the office. The dates will be included in the bulletin at a later date to avoid scheduling confusion.

Outreach to the Unaffiliated

On our website and FB page, there is an excellent YouTube video from the USCCB. This resource explores questions related to the increasing number of people who identify as religiously unaffiliated, and it highlights five effective avenues for reaching out to them. The median age of individuals who leave the Catholic Church is 13!!! Please watch the 25 minute video and reach out to others who have left the Church or do not believe in God. Then, help them contact Fr Mike, Fr Jamie, or Norm Hayden, DRE to ask questions about their Faith.

Laugh of the Week

One balmy evening in the South Pacific, a navy ship spied smoke coming from one of three huts on an uncharted island. Upon arriving at the shore, the crew was met by a shipwreck survivor. He said, "I'm so glad you're here. I've been alone on this island for more than five years." The captain replied, "If you're all alone, why do I see three huts?" The survivor answered, "Well I live in one and go to church in the other." "What about the third hut?" Asked the captain. "That's where I used to go to church."

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 15:21-28

"Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

Terah took his son Abram and the rest of his family from Ur in Chaldea [Iraq] north to Haran [Turkey]. Then God instructed Abram to take his family south to Canaan. The descendants of Abram [Abraham] moved into Canaan and capture their land. That caused an enduring animosity between the Canaanites and the Israelites. It is in this context we must understand what appears to be a harsh reaction of Jesus to the plea of the Canaanite woman, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David!" Jesus does not ignore or reject the woman. His response test her faith and the faith of his disciples. Is the woman sincere in her belief or is she testing Jesus? Do his disciples truly believe he is the "Son of David"? When she persist Jesus says to her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." The life of Jesus on this earth began when another woman of great faith said, "May it be done unto me according to your word." Do we truly believe that faith can accomplish great things? Do we act like we believe?

Pope Francis's Prayer to Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.
