12th Sunday In Ordinary Time June 21, 2020

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge...
So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows." - Mt 10:29, 31

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you,
Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope.
When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says
the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Parish News

Welcome Back!!!

As we return to opening the church for public Mass, please be patient as we do our best to keep our parishioners safe. A mask must be worn during mass and an usher will seat each person to stay within the CDC guidelines of social distancing. If you are ill, been exposed to COVID19, or your health is compromised, please continue to view the weekend Mass on our website. Bishop Medley has suspended the obligation to attend mass until further notice. Please keep yourself and others safe.

The parish office is open by appointment only.

Sincere Thanks

The Hagan family would like to thank Fr. Mike, Fr. Jamie, the choir, church family and staff for the beautiful celebration and service for Phillip Hagan.

3rd Quarter Ministry Schedule

If you are a Eucharistic Minister, Server, Lector or Usher, please pick up your 3rd quarter ministry schedule at the doors of church.

Help Needed

If you are able to help with sanitizing the church after the Tuesday 6:00 PM Mass or after any of the weekend Masses, please contact the parish office. With our sanitizing mister, the process only takes about 15 minutes. Many thanks to all who have been helping keep our church safe for all who enter.

A note from your DRE...

On this 12th Sunday in Ordinary time from the Gospel of Matthew Chapter 10:28, Jesus said, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." As our country continues to respond to the pandemic, we are again challenged by an extreme act of racism. The response has been mostly peaceful protests, with some non-peaceful riots, but even worse, more division. It is this division that can kill our soul. Included in the definition of the Greek word for the devil as the divider is, diábolos, "to condemn to sever a relationship." From Romans 12:5, Saint Paul says "so we, though many, are one body in Christ." When we encounter the devil attempting to divide us, we should respond as Jesus did, "Get away, Satan!" (Matthew 4:10). Let us pray this day that we trust in God's words and pray to strive for unity.

I don't know about you, but this currently doesn't feel like "ordinary time." When it comes to that phrase, let's consider what the USCCB teaches us. "Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ. Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe."

Please contact us for any questions about our Religious Education programs or faith formation needs.

Please visit our website at <http://www.blessedmotherchurch.com/> to find forms, handbooks, and/or information to register for any of our programs.

K-8 Religious Education

Religious Education has ended for the 2019-2020 year. Please stop by the office to receive your certificate of completion and remaining handouts for this year.

Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA)

At a private Mass on the vigil of Pentecost, we welcomed the newest members of the Catholic Church. Jeremiah James Pogue, Josephine Rose Smith, and Charlotte Jane Smith were baptized. Christian Lewis Miller was baptized and received his first Holy Communion. Grant Smith, Billy Pogue, Wendy Lamar, and David Mayfield were confirmed and welcomed into full communion with the Catholic Church. Please make them feel welcome and pray for them as they continue their faith journey.

Bible Study (Wednesday Evening)

From the Bishop's Statement on COVID19, Bible Study is cancelled through the summer.

Vacation Bible School

From the Bishop's Statement on COVID19, VBS is cancelled through the summer.

Sacrament of First Communion

For our 2019-2020 class of 2nd graders, the Retreat for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion has been scheduled for Saturday, August 29, 2020 from 10 AM to 12 PM. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will follow the Retreat. The Mass for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion will be Tuesday, September 1, 2020 at 6 PM. At this time, it is unknown if a reception following the Mass can be offered.

YouTube Channel

The Blessed Mother Church YouTube Channel has been reactivated, and the link posted to the website. You may view the recorded Mass there.

Outreach to the Unaffiliated

On our website and FB page, there is an excellent YouTube video from the USCCB. This resource explores questions related to the increasing number of people who identify as religiously unaffiliated, and it highlights five effective avenues for reaching out to them. The median age of individuals who leave the Catholic Church is 13!!! Please watch the 25 minute video and reach out to others who have left the Church or do not believe in God. Then, help them contact Fr Mike, Fr Jamie, or Norm Hayden, DRE to ask questions about their Faith.

Laugh of the Week

Leo and Sam locked the car in a hurry, forgetting to remove the key which was in the ignition. Realizing the mistake, Leo asked, "Why don't we get a coat hanger and open it?" "No, that won't work" answered Sam. "People will think we're breaking in." Then Leo suggested, "What if we use a pocket knife to cut around the rubber, then stick a finger in and pull up the lock?" "No," said Sam. "People will think we're too dumb to use a coat hanger." "Well," sighed Leo, "we'd better think of something fast, it's starting to rain and the sun roof is open!"

Forming Good Stewards

June 21, 2020

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matt 10:26-33

"Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known."

That cannot be good news for anybody. We all have skeletons in our closets that we hope will stay there. But Jesus was not speaking about our faults and failures being exposed. He was talking about the responsibility that comes with our Baptism: to know and to proclaim the Good News about God's unconditional love for us by what we say and do; by our words and actions. If what we do is not reflective and consistent with what we say, others will know that we are a hypocrite. That skeleton will be out of the closet. Happily, we have the assurance of Jesus that everyone who acknowledges and imitates Him by what we say and do, He will acknowledge before His heavenly Father. Imagine standing with Jesus and hearing Him say, "Father, this is my friend, [insert your name], who acknowledged me before others by word and deed." And the Father says, "Come, enter into my Kingdom!" WOW!

Last week, seven U.S. bishop chairmen of committees within the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issued a statement in the wake of the death of Mr. George Floyd and the protests that have broken out in Minneapolis and other cities in the United States. Their statement included a plea to all Catholics to pray and work for healing and peace:

[W]e call upon all Catholics to pray and work toward a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Let us pray for a supernatural desire to rid ourselves of the harm that bias and prejudice cause. We call upon Catholics to pray to the Holy Spirit for the Spirit of Truth to touch the hearts of all in the United States and to come down upon our criminal justice and law enforcement systems. Finally, let each and every Catholic, regardless of their ethnicity, beg God to heal our deeply broken view of each other, as well as our deeply broken society.

The Ministry of Praise commissions and enables parishioners who are suffering in any way to offer their situations in prayer for the parish and the universal Church. Contact Deacon Brett Mills, 270-683-8444, ext. 23, for more information on persevering in a difficult situation through participation with the Ministry of Praise.

Pope Francis's Prayer to Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.
