Background on the Gospel Reading

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, "Who is this about whom I hear such things?" and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was: "You are the Messiah of God." In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.

An ionization purification unit and an ultrafiltration system have been installed in the Chapel to remove and inactivate any virus particles. Of course, one should not come with any overt symptoms of an infection or illness.

Antecedentes de la lectura del Evangelio

Hoy, segundo domingo después de Pentecostés, celebramos una segunda solemnidad, que marca nuestro regreso al Tiempo Ordinario. Hoy es la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Hubo un tiempo en que este día se llamaba Corpus Christi, en latín "el Cuerpo de Cristo". En la revisión más reciente de la liturgia, se amplía el nombre de este día para que sea un reflejo más completo de nuestra teología eucarística.

La alimentación de los 5.000 es el único de los milagros de Jesús que aparece en los cuatro Evangelios. Lucas lo coloca entre la pregunta de Herodes: "¿Quién es éste de quien oigo tales cosas?" y la respuesta de Pedro a la pregunta de Jesús sobre quién pensaba él que era Jesús: "Tú eres el Mesías de Dios". En Lucas, la alimentación no es el resultado de la compasión de Jesús por la multitud, sino que es instigada por los discípulos. Querían que Jesús enviara a la multitud a la ciudad. En cambio, Jesús les dice a los discípulos que les den algo de comer por su cuenta.

El pasaje está destinado a recordarnos dos alimentaciones en el Antiguo Testamento: la alimentación de los israelitas en el desierto y la alimentación de Eliseo de 100 personas con 20 panes en 2 Reyes 4:42-44. También está conectado a la institución de la Eucaristía. Como en los relatos de la Última Cena en Mateo, Marcos y Lucas y en el relato de Pablo en 1 Corintios 11:23-24, Jesús toma el pan, mira al cielo, bendice el pan, lo parte y luego se lo da a los discípulos. Al usar este lenguaje exacto, Lucas está recordando a sus lectores que en este milagro Jesús está haciendo más que alimentar a las personas hambrientas como Dios hizo por los israelitas y también lo hizo el profeta Eliseo. El pan que da es su cuerpo, que seguirá dando cuantas veces la comunidad parta el pan en memoria de él en la Eucaristía.

Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia

Únase a nosotros todos los miércoles a las 3:30 pm (español) y los viernes a las 3:30 pm (inglés) en la iglesia, cantando y rezando la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia. Nuestro ministro de Música, Lino Gambino, liderará el canto de esta hermosa y poderosa oración. Mánden sus intenciones.

Nuestra meta parroquial es $77,000. Hemos recaudado $32.300 de la meta. Por favor haga su intención en la Campaña Católica Anual. La Parroquia es responsable de cualquier parte que quede.

Puede hacer su contribución en línea en give.sdcatholic.org, o recoger un folleto combinado/tarjeta de respuesta en la parte trasera de la iglesia.
