	NEW! Making Sense Out of Suffering - Peter Kreeft observes that our world is full of normal lives that have been touched by seemingly random and pointless suffering. If you are looking for insight into the mystery of suffering, this book will provide both clarity and comfort.
	NEW! Mission of the Family - How can the family practice the Catholic faith at home, in its parish, and in today's society? Jon Leonetti explains that it starts with the members of our family. Discover God's missions for all of you.
	NEW! Our Catholic Family - Everyone knows just how important and necessary it is for faith formation to extend into the home and daily life. This simple book can be a powerful tool for families to share in faith-filled conversation & prayer.
	NEW! Rediscover the Saints - We are capable of so much more than we think. God is constantly trying to open our eyes to the amazing possibilities that he has enfolded in our being. Matthew Kelly shows us how the saints continue this work, encouraging us to explore all our God-given potential, not with speeches but with the example of their lives.
	NEW! Show Us the Father - A father's mission is a link between heaven and earth. Devin Schadt's book offers seven keys to becoming the father that God has created and destined you to be.
	NEW! The Bible is a Catholic Book - The bible cannot exist apart from the Church. Instead of being intimidated by the Bible read this book to help you better understand this gift that God gave the world. In a clear and charitable way, Jimmy Akin explains how the early Church gave us the Bible—and how the Church to this day reveres and obeys it.
	NEW! Ultimate Makeover - Motherhood is difficult—there's no getting around it. Yet, the challenges a woman faces when she becomes a mother doesn't have to be in vain. Author Carrie Gress (a mother of four young children) sees daily life as an opportunity to grow gracefully as a woman, mother, wife, and friend.
	NEW! Why I love Being Catholic - This collection of entries celebrates the best of the Catholic faith, highlights the everyday miracles taking place all around us, and reminds us that there are thousands of everyday heroes out there who dare to have big dreams for the Church. Even amidst the challenges of our times, holiness is possible, grace abounds, and there is every reason to live our lives with hope!
	NEW! Why We Are Catholics - This book is a starting point for helping someone find their way into, or back to, the practice of the Catholic Faith. Trent Horn covers the whole range of common topics, starting with why we believe in anything at all and answering all the common objections to the Catholic Faith—both doctrinal and moral.
	7 Secrets of Confession Author Vinny Flynn explores the "hidden" truths of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, presenting what to many will be a whole new way of approaching Confession, inviting you to begin an exciting personal journey to healing and holiness.
	Into His Likeness Dr. Edward Sri provides an approachable but in-depth exploration of what it means to be a disciple of Christ. He emphasizes the importance of every Christian's developing the desire to be a true disciple of Christ and gives the reader a first glimpse of what the life of a disciple looks like. As the book progresses, he unfolds what a true encounter of love with Christ entails and explores the transforming power of God's grace.
	Signs of Life Dr. Scott Hahn guides us to a deeper faith through the Old Testament historical roots that underlie Catholic beliefs and practices. He clears up common misconceptions about specific liturgical rituals and traditions, and responds thoughtfully to the objections raised about them.
	Made This Way Today, as our culture's moral center continues to fly apart and with every form of deviance publicly aired and celebrated, we have no choice but to equip our kids to understand and to own the truth about such issues. In this book, Leila Miller and Trent Horn give you crucial tools and techniques to form children with the understanding they need to meet the world's challenges. Their secret lies in an approach that begins with the natural law.
	The Seven Deadly Sins of Apologetics The renaissance of Catholic apologetics has done great good for the Church. Ordinary Catholics are learning how to defend and explain the Faith - and to share it enthusiastically with others more fluently and confidently than ever. Mark Brumley has seen firsthand what this renaissance has accomplished. But he has also witnessed its dangers and pitfalls; some of which are so serious that they can undermine all our efforts. In this book, Brumley examines the most common faults that defenders of the Faith must guard against, and shows you how to avoid and overcome them.
	The Seven Spiritual Weapons St. Catherine of Bologna has been little known outside of her native region but interest in her is now increasing. The book tells a good deal about her inner experiences and early years in the cloister.
	A Father Who Keeps His Promise The eloquent teachings of Scott Hahn have moved thousands of Catholic Christians to a more vital expression of their faith. The popular Catholic apologist explores the covenant love God reveals to us in the Scriptures, and explains how God patiently reaches out to us to restore us into relationship with his divine Family. Join Hahn as he follows the high adventure of God's plan for the ages, beginning with Adam and Eve and continuing down through the generations to the coming of Christ and the birth of the Church.
	Making Choices We are faced with countless choices every day, but many of us find decision making difficult—and living with our choices even harder. Making Choices is a powerful resource for anyone who desires clarity when facing decisions, confidence when making them, and happiness when living with the consequences.
	The Joy of the Gospel What on earth are you chasing? We are all chasing something, and always for the same reason: we want something or someone to give us the joy we yearn for at the very depths of our being. Whether we are aware of it or not, we are all chasing Jesus. Pope Francis explains how & why embracing the Gospel is the source of this joy.
	Theology for Beginners Clear, precise, and inspiring, Theology for Beginners has been acclaimed as an outstanding introduction to theology. This book will equip you with the information you need to understand key doctrines of Catholicism and explain them to others.
	The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity Do you believe it's possible to be happier than you have ever been? Not for fleeting moments, but consistently? Bestselling author Matthew Kelly believes it is possible. Get the practical tools necessary to dispel the false promises the modern culture feeds you, and discover the single truth that is the key to regaining your fervor, bringing Christian unity, and leaving your mark on the world.
	On Care for Our Common Home Laudato Si', is the new appeal from Pope Francis addressed to every person living on this planet for an inclusive dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. Pope Francis calls the Church and the world to acknowledge the urgency of our environmental challenges and to join him in embarking on a new path.
	The Word of God Discover new ways to encounter the word of God! Pope Benedict XVI shares his reflections on the many ways God meets us in his word. Drawing upon texts from both the Old and New Testaments, the Holy Father shows how God wants all his children to know him by hearing and reading his word.
