

Reflection for Easter Sunday

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad! Jesus Christ is risen, the firstborn of the dead and the promise of our salvation. Again I say rejoice!

As important as it was that Jesus died on the cross for our sins, if that was the end of the story, our faith would be in vain. He would be considered a great teacher, a healer, philosopher or prophet, but He is so much more. By His resurrection from the dead, His true nature, His divinity was revealed to the nations. Our faith is secure in Christ alone, the stone which the builders rejected, but the one chosen by God for our salvation.

So as Jesus has gone before us to show us the way to His heavenly Father, let us commit ourselves to follow in his footsteps, to recognize God's blessings in our lives and to live as true disciples and good stewards of the riches of our faith. Hold the joy of Easter in your heart and let it shine through in all you do!

Hallelujah, Praise the Lord; Jesus Christ is risen!

Tim Connelly