

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, July 15th

Studying our first Reading from Amos and the second Reading from Ephesians, a realization became clear. God has a plan – who doesn't know that? And, we are to be in accord with Him. I am defining that as being in agreement. Amos isn't the only one our Lord calls to prophesy. Share that good news and shout His blessings to all who will listen. Ephesians reminds us: "He chose us in Him, to be holy and without blemish before him." Yet we have more to shout about. God "with the riches of His grace lavished upon us" and the redemption by His blood, forgives our sins. Today, I found myself thinking, it's Father's Day in June. I am reading about God and His plan. This is God's day. He was even featured in the Responsorial and the Alleluia verse. In the end, I am reminded that we must be accord with Our Heavenly Father always.

Pam DeWitt