

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 29, 2018

The first reading, the responsorial, and the gospel all speak of feeding. Each describes in a different way that the Lord feeds us both physically and spiritually. Is he also asking us to feed each other? Have you ever had an experience that when you shared something you got more back than you gave? How many times have we held back love, friendship, time, money, forgiveness, etc.? Maybe when we are faced with a choice to share, we should remember that God does not set limits in his love and forgiveness to us.
