As you know, I am leaving for sabbatical and vacation on May 1 and will return June 27. Know of my prayers for you and your families while I am gone and know that I do appreciate your prayers as well. I will be in the Chicago Land area. Both Deacons and Wendy know how to reach me in case of an emergency. They are well prepared to handle what should come up during these two months.

Fr. Roberto Ike, priest who teaches at Lincoln University and substitutes on the weekend will be here May 5-6, May 12-13, May 19-20. Msgr. Flanagan, Our Lady of Lourdes Columbia will be here May 26-27. Fr. Pat Dowling will have 8am Mass on Tuesdays and Fridays. On May 2, our 6th graders will be participating in 6th Grade Vocation Day at the Cathedral. May 5-6 we will be handing out finals care packages. Please say a prayer for everyone taking finals especially our seniors who will be making significant transitions in their lives that they continue to follow God's plan for them in their lives and that they remember to ask him and lean on him as they discern their future. On May 6, we will celebrate our parish First Communion Mass. So, pray for our second graders and their families that they may more fall in love with Jesus in the Eucharist as they get older. Let their excitement pour into our hearts that we may be ever more awed by the gift of the Eucharist we are so blessed to receive. Congratulations to all receiving first communion! Of course on May 6, Knights of Columbus will also have a Blood drive, so remember to sign up or just go over there to give blood. ACTs 29 will also be hosting an open house and BBQ on May 6th, please stop by. Friday, May 11, we are proud to say several of our parishioners will be graduating from St. Peter Catholic Grade School! Congratulations to them and their families!! May 12th will be a parish work & clean day, there will be something for all ages. May 13, we wish a Happy Mother's Day to all Mom's. Someone who participated in the quilt raffle will win the quilt that day! We will have the Mary May Crowning at mass. May 19 and 20 is Pentecost Sunday, so remember to wear red to weekend Mass as a reminder of the gift of the Holy Spirit dwelling within us and our parish. May 26-27 is the Feast of the Holy Trinity and then on Monday May 29 we celebrate our annual Memorial Day mass at the cemetery at 9:30am. Teen choir will lead us in music. Please join us in our events and celebrations in the month of May. CCIA/CPIA Friday, May 4th, "Keeping the Blessed Virgin Mary in Your Home". Remember Ladies Sodality, 50+, Knights of Columbus meeting, Beloved Marriage Enrichment, and Bible Study all meeting this month as well.

An active member of St. Andrew parish is registered with the parish, participates in Mass and the sacraments, has completed the most current version of the Time, Talent, & Treasure form, and supports the parish financially.
