USA Midwest Province

Who We Are

Founded by St. Ignatius in 1540, the Jesuits are the world's largest religious order of priests and brothers. The 500 Midwest Jesuits, led by our Provincial, Fr. Brian Paulson, SJ, (at left) serve in the U.S. in more than 66 ministries throughout 12 states, from the Great Lakes to the Great Plains. These ministries include elementary, middle and high schools, universities, the first Jesuit community college, a publishing house, parishes, retreat centers, social justice ministries, Native American missions, a novitiate, two healthcare communities, a first studies program for Jesuit brothers and Jesuits studying for the priesthood, and partnerships with Jesuit provinces around the world. Each of these ministries serves different people and different purposes. They are all united by the Jesuit mission of forming women and men for others; finding God in all things; cura personalis, or care for the whole person; and directing all of our efforts toward the greater glory of God.

What We Do

Best known as educators, Jesuits serve wherever the need is greatest, from hard-pressed urban neighborhoods in Detroit to developing schools in Kenya, from the wind-swept prairies of Pine Ridge, SD, to remote regions of India. With lay collaborators, Jesuits are involved in a variety of international works through flagship organizations like the Jesuit Refugee Service.

Jesuits and their friends also minister to people in the hard-to-reach places of the heart. They serve as military chaplains, helping soldiers find meaning far from home; as prison chaplains, accompanying those behind bars in a journey of reconciliation; as hospital chaplains, praying for healing together with patients and families; and in many other pastoral settings. Jesuits address issues ranging from interreligious dialogue in countries torn apart by violence, to access to education and the struggle for environmental justice. Jesuits imagine and build innovative education models like Cristo Rey and Arrupe College. Wherever they go, Jesuits continue Saint Ignatius of Loyola's vision of serving on the frontiers of mission and ministry.

How to Get Involved

We invite you to join us in spreading the Good News, and in applying Ignatian Spirituality to everyday life. Our ministries (see other side) offer opportunities to deepen your connection to the Jesuits.

LEARN by visiting our website for stories, podcasts, videos, and more: JesuitsMidwest.org

GET NEWS about the Jesuits, their work, and its impact. Join our email list to receive electronic communications, and bookmark our homepage; follow us on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook. Search "Midwest Jesuits".

SPREAD THE GOOD NEWS by promoting and sharing awareness of our works and the positive impact the Society of Jesus and its lay companions are making.

MAKE A GIFT to support Jesuit ministries, attract new vocations, fund the education and formation of Jesuits, and care for senior Jesuits. And help us imagine and create new and innovative ways of serving the greatest needs.

PRAY with us at JesuitPrayer.org for daily nourishment of the soul via the web, email or our popular app.

WITH OTHERS.
FOR OTHERS.

The Campaign for Senior Jesuit Healthcare

With your support we are able to promote Jesuit vocations, form Jesuit priests and brothers, serve in our international missions, provide healthcare to our senior Jesuits, and imagine and create new and innovative ways of serving the greatest needs.
