

Franciscan University Academic Lecture Series

(Open to the community at no cost)

October 11, 2019

3:30pm

Dr. Patrick Lee
PhD, M.A.

Dr. Patrick Lee is a professor of philosophy and holds the John N. and Jamie D. McAleer Chair in Bioethics. He is also the director of the Center for Bioethics at Franciscan University of Steubenville. In this capacity he defends and articulates the Church's position on a wide range of human life issues through his writings, debates, and public speaking engagements.

He is a member of the American Catholic Philosophical Association, and Society of Christian Philosophers. He is also the recipient of the Cardinal Wright Award for Excellence in Catholic Scholarship in Integrating Faith and Reason. Dr. Lee has also written three books.

Keynote Speaker & Panel Discussion at the Passionately Catholic
Social Workers' Annual Conference

Sponsored by the Catholic Social Workers' National Association and the Counseling and Social Work
Department in conjunction with the School of Professional Programs at Franciscan University.

