Dear Parishioners,

My deepest gratitude to our Holy Trinity family for showing your support and love. To our beloved Bishop Robert McElroy for officiating my instillation. May the Good Shephard continue to guide and bless us as we continue to build his kingdom here on earth. As St. Therese once says “ I will spend my heaven by doing good things on earth.” Let us work together in His vineyard, our beloved parish Holy Trinity.

God Bless,
Fr Rey

Your gifts make possible the work that impacts so many in our diocese: those who attend Catholic school, formation of new priests and care for our retired priests, evangelization and accompaniment of Young Adults, and the consoling presence of Christ for those imprisoned. Please make your intention to the Annual Catholic Appeal. You can make your contribution online at giving.sdatholic.org, or by picking up a combo brochure/response card here at the parish.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say "nothing"? That's what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday's Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous "proofs" do? We know more than the law and the prophets - we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels "optional" when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ's teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need - in Him - to begin to live a virtuous life now.

Evangelio según San Lucas 16,19-31.

Jesús dijo a los fariseos: "Había un hombre rico que se vestía de púrpura y lino finísimo y cada día hacía espléndidos banquetes.

A su puerta, cubierto de llagas, yacía un pobre llamado Lázaro, que ansiaba saciarse con lo que caía de la mesa del rico; y hasta los perros iban a lamer sus llagas.

El pobre murió y fue llevado por los ángeles al seno de Abraham. El rico también murió y fue sepultado.

En la morada de los muertos, en medio de los tormentos, levantó los ojos y vio de lejos a Abraham, y a Lázaro junto a él.

Entonces exclamó: 'Padre Abraham, ten piedad de mí y envía a Lázaro para que moje la punta de su dedo en el agua y refresque mi lengua, porque estas llamas me atormentan'.

'Hijo mío, respondió Abraham, recuerda que has recibido tus bienes en vida y Lázaro, en cambio, recibió males; ahora él encuentra aquí su consuelo, y tú, el tormento.

Además, entre ustedes y nosotros se abre un gran abismo. De manera que los que quieren pasar de aquí hasta allí no pueden hacerlo, y tampoco se puede pasar de allí hasta aquí'.

El rico contestó: 'Te ruego entonces, padre, que envíes a Lázaro a la casa de mi padre, porque tengo cinco hermanos: que él los prevenga, no sea que ellos también caigan en este lugar de tormento'.

Abraham respondió: 'Tienen a Moisés y a los Profetas; que los escuchen'.

'No, padre Abraham, insistió el rico. Pero si alguno de los muertos va a verlos, se arrepentirán'.

Pero Abraham respondió: 'Si no escuchan a Moisés y a los Profetas, aunque resucite alguno de entre los muertos, tampoco se convencerán'".

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

¿A quién servimos; a Dios o al Dinero? Se preguntaba al escuchar el Evangelio de la semana pasada. Ahora vienen los ejemplos en las lecturas de la liturgia de hoy, más claras y concretas para un compromiso al cambio de vida. La lectura del profeta Amós dice lo siguiente al pueblo de Israel: "Tendidos en sus camas de marfil o arrellanados sobre sus sofás, comen corderitos del rebaño." (Amós 6:4). Una buena respuesta viene de la 1o Carta de Timoteo: "Pero tú, hombre de Dios, huye de todo eso... vive con fe y amor, constancia y bondad." (1de Timoteo 6:11). ¿Qué se puede aprender de estas lecturas? Son tan claras como el agua que bebemos. La riqueza no es mala; lo malo es no compartirla con los necesitados. Y no se trata solo de dinero, sino del tiempo de calidad, sonrisas, abrazos y decir un te quiero te necesito a la esposa y a los hijos y viceversa la esposa a su esposo.

El Evangelio, con la parábola del rico y Lázaro, cae con toda la sabiduría y compasión de Dios hacia Lázaro; pobre humanamente hablando, pero rico al poseer a Dios en su vida. Frecuentemente, la persona se ciega a las necesidades de otros, a los que sufren dolor físico o espiritual. La Santa Madre Teresa de Calcuta decía sobre el sufrimiento lo siguiente: "Nuestros sufrimientos son caricias bondadosas de Dios, llamándonos para que nos volvamos a Él, y para hacernos reconocer que no somos nosotros los que controlamos nuestras vidas, sino que es Dios quien tiene el control, y podemos confiar plenamente en Él."

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Las personas, a menudo, piensan que si son testigos de algún milagro les traerá una mayor fe y los motivará para una mayor participación. Esto no es necesariamente cierto, ya que llegar a una fe real y auténtica aún requiere que luchemos un poco con nosotros mismos y cambiemos nuestro enfoque en la vida. La fe auténtica se adquiere cuando vemos sabiduría y vida en las palabras de los profetas y en las enseñanzas de Jesucristo. Todo esto nos apunta a un Dios que tiene un conjunto particular de prioridades sobre cómo se debe vivir la vida. Tenemos que evitar la trampa de la complacencia que está arraigada en preservar nuestros propios intereses personales y mejor vivir vidas que persiguen "rectitud, piedad, fe, amor, paciencia y mansedumbre". (1 Tm 6: 11) La complacencia nos mantiene atrapados en el estatus quo y nos impide trabajar por el respeto por la vida, la igualdad y la justicia, y por abogar en favor de las necesidades de los pobres, las personas sin hogar y los extranjeros. ¿Eres complaciente?
