Anointing of the Sick (is not only for the dying. The Sacrament's purpose is to strengthen the spiritual health of the sick even to remission of sins, should they be unable to confess. Occasionally the ill have recovered physical health also. Serious illness or old age is sufficient reason to receive the Sacrament. It may be repeated after a recovery, or if the danger increases. Anointing before a major operation or of unconscious Christians is allowed. It is administered by anointing the forehead and hands with blessed olive oil.
