

Haiti - House #101 - Vita Victor

There were at least 13 people living in this pitiful place. Vita Victor and Manel Louis have been trying their best to survive in this dire situation which only became worse after Hurricane Matthew in October 2016. They regularly attend Mass at Our Lady of the Assumption church where they have been praying very hard that something could be done about their situation. God has heard the prayers of these subsistence farmers and in May 2017, the miracle and blessing of a new home has brought hope and help to this hard working family. God Bless all who have helped to make this possible.
