

Haiti - House #150 Magdala Cassamajor

Magdala Cassamajor is pictured in the "Before" scene with three of her four children. She and her husband, Dumesle, are hard workers who farm the land around their home to do the best they can to take care of their family. Dumesle is a particularly hard worker, besides farming, working as a motorcycle taxi driver. Magdala comes regularly to church with her children, always happy and hopeful that, despite all, one day God would take her and her family out of the crumbling place in which they were having to live. They send their prayerful thanks and joyful best wishes to all the donors who have made this miracle finally happen.

Before

After

Dedication

