

House # 17 - Mrs Elaine's House

Mrs. Eliane is a God-fearing woman who has had to struggle extra hard throughout her life because of a handicapped son. One would never suspect it until you see the pitiful dwelling in which she was residing because she and her son are always joyful and celebrating the joy of the Lord in church. It was an exciting day when we were able to escort her from the dilapidated place you see here to her new home. She sends her thanks and her deepest appreciation and prayer to all who have helped and continue to help her and her son.
