

Haiti – House #174 – The Dominique Family

Nevelia Michel with her husband Harold Dominique, one of their six children and three grand children. There are about twelve people living in the before picture shanty. One their daughters is mentally challenged which adds another serious concern to the family's daily challenges. Harold farms while Nevelia and her oldest daughter sell fried food (fish and chicken, etc) along the roadside to help take care of the family. The family sends their prayers and heartfelt thanks to all who have helped in any way to make this dream become a miraculous reality
