

Haiti - House #192 The Felissaint Family

Nicole Felissaint had five children and lives in the pitiful shanty you see in the “before” picture with her three sons. Edouard, the son you see in the picture is her youngest. He is also the one who takes care of his mute and deaf mother by doing handcrafts and working as an English interpreter. Mrs. Felissaint is always smiling. She still does a little gardening and spends much time fetching water. They currently live by the air strip in Numero Deux but will be moving to one of HMI’s s/ds next month when their new house is built. They send their heartfelt gratitude for all have helped in any way to make this miracle happen in their lives.
