

Haiti House #401 Edruch Pierre

Edruch Pierre is a widower who lives with his three children in Numero Deux. He farms to try to care for his family as much as possible and the children help when they can but they are all still in school. He considers the replacement of his pitiful shack with a beautiful new home one of the biggest blessings of his and his children's lives! He sends his thanks out to all who made it possible!

Before

After

