

Enes House

Ms. Enes or “the pig lady” as we affectionately refer to her has been taking care of the pigs in our pig barn since we began the project many years ago. The pitiful hut in which she was living was destroyed by the earthquake of January, 2010. We were delighted to be able to get funding to build her a decent home for her and her children.

