

Haiti – House #71 – Vanise Jean Louis

The Jean Louis family has been having to survive in the deplorable situation you can see in the before pictures all their lives. HMI is delighted to be able to build this family a new home where they will be protected from the elements and the family will be able to live with joy and dignity. Thanks to all who helped in any way to make this dream come true.

Before

After

