

Haiti – House #84 – Jean Joseph

Jean Parnel Joseph is one of our hard workers at Bec's Bakery. He lives in the pitiful place shown in the before picture near the ravine and public fountain in Numero Deux with his two sons. He also farms and raises animals for a living. Although he works very hard and takes care of his sons, he is an alcoholic which has compounded his problems all his life. We hope and pray that receiving a new home and getting out of the mud and misery will be the catalyst to help him overcome his addiction. May God bless the donors who made this miracle in his life possible.
