

Numero Deux Compound

The first well drilled in Numero Deux provides water to the Haiti Mission base camp. Through the use of solar power, water from this well is pumped into a 1200 gallon cistern system providing a source of clean water for cooking, drinking and bathing. Water is also provided for watering of gardens.

