

Montfort Orphanage Well

The de Montfort Orphanage is situated near the top of one of the mountains in Jeremie, Haiti. Prior to completion of this well, the nuns at this orphanage had to buy water that was trucked in from the village of Numero Deux - seven miles away. A constant and permanent water source enables these wonderful dedicated sisters to take in more children and love and care for them in a more efficient and effective way.

