

Haiti – Well #60 Youth Center

The diocesan youth center in Jeremie was constantly plagued with an inadequate water supply since the main line furnishing water to the city is constantly broken or experiencing some delivery problem. The HMI drill team was able to drill a borehole and locate a good supply of water at only 85 feet below the surface. The youth center and the neighborhood around it in the city of Jeremie now has another consistent and good quality water source.