

Eveche

Eveche in creole refers to the Chancellery office of the diocese and/or the bishop's residence. The administration offices of the diocese of Jeremie were being hampered because of a critical need for potable water. Haiti Mission Inc. (HMI) was able to raise funds so that this well could be drilled. The diocese supplied the pump and the plumber in order to complete this project and alleviate a potentially devastating situation from developing.

