Twenty-Ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time – October 21, 2018

GLORY, GLORY, HALLELUJAH

In the Gospel Reading, James and John ask Jesus if they can sit on his right and on his left in his glory. The other ten apostles are indignant when they learn of it. In response to the apostles' indignation, Jesus gives them a lesson on glory. On worldly views, the great ones are the rulers. On Jesus' view, the servants are the truly great ones. Real glory doesn't come from lording it over others, but from serving others. Jesus is most glorious in his crucifixion, when he has lost everything but love.

So Jesus' response to the indignation of the apostles shows us that they were thinking of glory as kingship. And they were indignant with James and John, because they thought that kind of kingship was what James and John were asking Jesus for. But notice that Jesus does not respond to James and John by explaining to them what true glory is. What Jesus says to James and John shows us what those two apostles were thinking, just as Jesus' response to the others shows us what they were indignant about.

To James and John, Jesus says, "Can you drink the cup that I drink?" This is the cup that Jesus prayed might pass from him. It is his crucifixion. So James and John have the right idea of glory. They are not asking for thrones in heaven, as the other apostles think they are. They are asking whether they might be crucified with Jesus, on either side of him. And here is the most powerful thing to notice in this story. Jesus does not rebuke James and John for their request. He grants it. They will drink his cup with him.

But Jesus denies them their request to be beside him in his glory. That gift is already prepared by God for others, Jesus says. And which others? Well, for those two thieves, crucified on either side of Jesus. Who else? God gave that great gift that James and John wanted—not to any of the apostles, but to two unknown, low-down, petty criminals. And what happened? One of those thieves wasted the gift. The other one was glorious, wasn't he?

FRENCH CORNER

Servir et donner sa vie

Jésus a été un homme bien patient. A trois reprises, il a annoncé à ses disciples qu'il devait passer par la mort pour nous ouvrir le chemin conduisant à la Vie éternelle. La première fois, Pierre l'a pris à part pour lui faire des reproches. La deuxième fois, les disciples discutaient pour savoir lequel d'entre eux était le plus grand. Aujourd'hui, Jacques et Jean lui demandent d'être assis à sa droite et à sa gauche dans sa gloire...

Ils ne comprennent pas vite, ces disciples ! Mais, les choses ont-elles vraiment changé après plus de 2.000 ans de christianisme ? Qu'en est-il de notre capacité d'entendre la parole de Dieu et de la mettre en pratique dans notre vie quotidienne ? Demandons-nous à Dieu que « sa volonté soit faite » ou, au contraire, de nous accorder de suite toutes nos requêtes ? Savons-nous pardonner les autres comme Dieu pardonne nos offenses ?...

Heureusement, Jésus est aussi patient aujourd'hui qu'autrefois et il ne cesse de nous redire : « Celui qui veut devenir grand doit être votre serviteur ». Engageons-nous donc résolument sur la voie du service et du don de soi !

FROM OUR SCHOOL

Parishioners,

I hope you are having a wonderful weekend and that you are enjoying the Fall weather!

At Ecole Notre Dame des Victoires students are Active Christians, Effective Communicators, Responsible Citizens, Lifelong Learners, and Healthy Individuals. We call these five traits our School-Wide Learning Expectations (SLE's) and we foster and grow these character traits in our students as we work to support parents as the primary educators of their children. This week, we focused on student growth as Responsible Citizens who show care and compassion for all. Students model this behavior daily but made extra efforts this week and it was truly beautiful to see.

Have a wonderful week and God Bless,
Sarah

BE A MISSION VOICE!: Today, with Catholics of the world, we are called to offer, at this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we “speak up” through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions. As little as $25 helps support a catechist for a month in Latin America, $75 provides for the work of religious Sisters in Africa, $100 assists children in schools in Asia. As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ’s witnesses to a world so in need of His healing love and peace.

ALL SAINTS DAY: is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints --that is those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church. Masses for this Holy Day of Obligation will be celebrated at 7 am, 12:10 pm and 6:30 p.m.

ALL SOULS DAY: On All Souls, we remember all those who have died, not just the spiritual superstars. From the earliest days the church has prayed for the deceased. Their judgment is in the hands of God, and we trust in God’s mercy. But we also believe God cares about us and our concerns, so prayers for our deceased loved ones are appropriate. It’s appropriate to commemorate All Souls Day by praying for those who have gone before us in faith. Some people also visit the graves of their loved ones to pray for them. The feast of All Souls reminds us of our mortality. We are all finite, mortal creatures. We are all loved by God, who has endowed us with an immortal soul. Our ultimate destiny lies in God’s hands, and even death does not separate us from his love. Please remember your deceased loved ones by placing a butterfly on the trellis with the name of your loved ones, by entering your deceased loved one in the Book of the Names of the Dead, and by making a offering in memory of your deceased family members and friends. Special Envelopes for All Souls Day can be found in the pews and entrance to the church. Masses for All Souls Day will be celebrated at 7 am, 12:10 pm and 6:30 p.m.

HOSPITALITY NEEDS YOUR HELP: The delicious treats in the Parish Hall, after Masses, are generously organized by volunteers - like YOU!
