Nehemiah: 8:2-4A, 5-6, 8-10

1st Corinthians: 12:12-30

Luke: 1:1-4, 4:14-21

1. The people hear the book of the law from Ezra, they first raise their hands, saying, “Amen, Amen” and then prostrate themselves before the Lord. Finally, after hearing God’s law and weeping, they are told to rejoice in the Lord because rejoicing in the Lord must be our what?
2. St. Paul tells us “we are all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.” Although we are all individuals, we are part of what?
3. St. Luke tells us Jesus goes to the synagogue in his hometown of Nazareth. He is given a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. The passage he reads says in part “...because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings...” What does Jesus then tell the people when he hands the scroll back to the attendant?

CONFIRMATION ONLY - CHALLENGE QUESTION (WRITE ANSWER ON BACK)

Jesus reads from the scrolls in the synagogue about the savior being among the people, yet those there do not recognize Jesus the Savior in their midst.

Do you think you would recognize Jesus if he was present in our modern age?

How can we be more observant of him in our midst?
