1. God has called Moses to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. What name does God tell Moses to give to the Israelites when they ask who sent him?
2. The Corinthians learn from St. Paul of the things that happened to the Israelites during the Exodus from Egypt. St. Paul says these were an example for us and they were written so as to be a _____ to us.
3. If we do not repent of our sins, what does Jesus say will happen to us?

CONFIRMATION ONLY - CHALLENGE QUESTION (WRITE ANSWER ON BACK)

Many times the vine is used to indicate God's affection for His people, or to indicate the lack of response on the part of the people to God's love.

God's people, God's vineyard. You are a part of this vineyard.

If you apply this parable to yourself, is your tree bearing fruit or is it without fruit?

If your tree is with fruit, explain what you do to keep your tree bearing fruit.

If your tree is without fruit, explain the lack of fruit and what you can do to become fruit bearing.
