Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Readings:

Isaiah: 50:4-7

Philippians: 2:6-11

Luke: 22:14-23:56

1. Isaiah tells us God has given him a well-trained tongue and that God opens his ears every morning so he may hear; he does not rebel or shield himself because:
“the Lord God is my _____, therefore I _____;”
2. St. Paul explains how Jesus emptied himself and took the form of a slave and humbled himself, obediently accepting even death, death on a cross! So, at Jesus' name what should be done:
3. This gospel is St. Mark telling of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ.
After Jesus gives us the Eucharist at the Last Supper what else happens:
  - a. What does Judas Iscariot do?
  - b. What does Peter say about denying Christ?
  - c. What did the inscription say about Jesus?

CONFIRMATION ONLY - CHALLENGE QUESTION (WRITE ANSWER ON BACK)

How would you have reacted to the woman who broke open the alabaster jar to anoint Jesus?

Who can you relate with? The disciples, the woman?

Explain the irony of Judas betraying Jesus with a kiss. Have you ever betrayed someone's trust? Did they forgive you?
