Lector Schedule for December thru January 28, 2024.

Dear Lectors,

Attached is the Lector Schedule for Advent, the Christmas season, and the beginning four weeks of January 2024. If you have a conflict for a scheduled weekend, please notify me immediately. Please welcome back to our schedule Krista Portincasa, she returned after a few years of a break.

Some important scheduling reminders are noted:

- If you are scheduled for a weekend and have a conflict, please do your best to find a replacement or at the very least notify the second reader for that weekend.
- If you could complete the electronic request off form, I would be grateful, as it centralizes requests for me. Complete by January 10, for February through Easter Sunday.
- Reminder of our processes with two lectors scheduled:
 - The first lector at 5pm, 9am and 11am will read the First Reading.
 - The second lector at 5pm, 9am and 11am, will read the Second Reading and the Prayers of the Faithful.
 - At 7am Mass the first lector they will read the Entrance Antiphon from the cantor stand (use a Breaking Bread) and not process into Church. Both will process out of Church with the priest at the end of Mass.
- Please check your assigned schedule, listed phone number and email address on the contact list, e-mail me with any corrections.

May you all have a safe, healthy, and blessed Christmas season and beyond.
