Corpus Christi Sunday

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

He said to them, 'This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.'" – Mark 14:22-24

Passover is a very important feast in the lives of the Jewish people. We read about this in Exodus where Moses instructed the people to sacrifice a lamb and put the blood of the lamb over the door, so that they would be spared the wrath that was to come to those who did not believe or follow these instructions. For generations since, the Jews have commemorated this event with the feast of Passover.

We read in Mark's Gospel that Jesus, being a devout Jew, asked His disciples to prepare for the celebration of this feast. But as we now know, Jesus would use this occasion to establish something new – to institute the Eucharist. He is the lamb that was sacrificed. And it is through His Body and His Blood that people would be saved.

It is a mystery of faith which we proclaim at each Eucharistic celebration. We partake of this great mystery each time we receive communion at Mass. The simple everyday elements of bread and wine truly become the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ through the consecration in which the priest act "In Persona Christi", that is "in the person of Christ". How is this possible – to receive the body and blood of Christ? It requires faith in what Jesus told His disciples and us. After the consecration, we proclaim the Mystery of Faith which is the Paschal Mystery. One of the responses is "When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again".

Allow our Lord to truly be present to you in the Eucharist each time you come to Mass, and remember the words we speak before receiving Him, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed."

Making our way back to Mass and reception of Holy Communion.

Summer is underway and we are looking forward to see more people make their way back to church. This has been a long dry spell of waiting for it to be safe to gather.

People ask what is the proper protocol when returning to church. It seems prudent to encourage those attending Mass who desire to wear a mask and observe social distance to do so. We are aware that there are some unable to wear masks due to health or personal reasons. The number of cases are down with the vaccines for those attending Mass. We will continue to be cautious and if needed wear masks and social distancing to keep those vulnerable protected from the virus.

Breaking Bread Hymnals will be kept at the doors of the church to be picked up when you arrive and replaced when you leave. Please do not leave the books in the pews. The 4:00 PM Mass will continue to be online for those at home. Please call the office if you like Holy Communion brought to your home. Confession is held on Thursdays at 3:00 to 4:00 and 7:00 to 7:30 pm or call the parish office for an appointment. Please notify the parish office if you are sick and would like to have the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

We like to hear from the pews your suggestion so please make us of the suggestion boxes at the doors or give us a call. Thank you for belonging to St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church.

It's Time to Get Involved!

There is no "one-size fits all" approach to caring for the vulnerable children of our community. In a partnership with the Angel Armies Foundation, Florida is offering a variety of options to engage church and faith institutions in ongoing efforts – at no cost.

The Angel Armies foundation is a nationwide nonprofit with a mission of being a voice for the vulnerable and a goal of ending our country's child welfare crisis. www.myfloridamymfamily.com with the Department of Children and Families is a website that acts as a gateway to family support services to pair those in need of assistance with local faith institutions and community organizations eager to help. It also serves as a landing site for foster and adoptive parent recruitment in Florida.

This online directory that allows anyone to search for verified social services providers for things like food, housing, transit, healthcare, legal aid, and more by zip code. An innovative platform allows engaged organizations to see the real time needs of vulnerable children and families in their communities. A multitude of opportunities for faith and community groups to support local foster and adoptive families.

A House Unified

Family Faith Formation

Man, oh man, did I have a bad soccer game last night. My team lost but that wasn't so bad. What was REALLY bad was how we lost. We played badly. During the game, three of our players were texting on their phones, two were playing with their DS, four of the guys were arguing the whole time, and the goalie fell asleep. The other team scored seven points and we didn't score at all. Pretty bad, huh? So why do you think we lost so badly? You know what I think? I think everybody was just doing their own thing and nobody was really focusing on playing the game. We weren't really playing like a team.

That reminds me of our lesson today. Jesus was talking to a crowd, trying to help them understand how God works in our world. And he said that a house divided against itself cannot stand. Does anybody know what that means? What would happen in a house if the walls and roof and floor were all crooked and unconnected, going in a bunch of different directions? It would probably fall down, right? Just like my team. Everybody was going in different directions, and we couldn't score even one goal. Jesus wanted to help people understand that if they really wanted to share God's love in the world, they would have to put all their energy, all their focus, all their LIVES into doing just that and get rid of anything that would get in the way. Like, if you're playing a soccer game, you should leave your phone at home. We get rid of things that distract us and try to do things that help us concentrate. If we want to play a good game of soccer, we can practice, eat nutritious foods, and sleep well. We need to do the same thing in our lives as Christians. If we want to share God's love with people around us, we need to pray and be with others who can help us and read stories about Jesus to understand how he was telling us to live. It helps us get stronger and live more loving lives. It's all about deciding what's really important to us, and what we want our lives to look like. When we decide what's really important, we want to do our best and give our best. And, as much as I want to play soccer well, I think it's even more important to share God's love in the world.

Closing Prayer: Loving God, we thank you for coaching us in our lives and for helping us to make good decisions that help us get stronger and for showing us the things we no longer need. We pray that each day we are able to become a little more focused on you, so that we can carry your love to everyone we meet. In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Year of St. Joseph

— Saint Joseph's Faith.

Joseph most faithful, Pray for us
Joseph most valiant, pray for us

We marvel at the faith of Saint Joseph. Tormenting doubts harass his soul and he is on the point of leaving Mary. But an angel appears to him and all his doubts and fears vanish. On the angel's word he accepts the mystery of the Incarnation.

In the ensuing years his faith was to be frequently put to the test. At Bethlehem he had to content himself with a stable for a home where the Incarnate Word might be born. Soon after, he was forced to flee into exile in order to save the Infant God, and when later he returned to the tiny village of Nazareth it was to live there unknown and in dire poverty.

All these trials only tempered his faith. Although he sees only the child's wretchedness and poverty, his faith pierces the shroud and uncovers the hidden God within this weak baby frame. Because his faith is so strong, Joseph's mind and heart bowed in perfect adoration.

Imitate his faith as you kneel before the humble Christ annihilated in the Eucharist. Pierce the veil of love and adore the hidden God. At the same time respect the veil of love and make the immolation of your mind and heart your most beautiful homage of faith. (St Peter Julian Eymard. Eymard Library, Vol. 8 pp 47-48).

Saint Joseph, instill in our hearts the same faithful and watchful care for our Eucharistic Lord that you showed to the Christ Child and his mother. Intercede on our behalf with your foster son for an increase of wisdom and courage when we are weary and our faith is challenged. Amen

Strong Catholic Families

Partnering with Parents to Bring Home the Faith

All across the country, pastors—along with parish leaders—are asking for effective ways to engage parents in the life and mission of the church.

They are also seeking ways to help parents take ownership as the primary leaders of faith within their families. To work together toward this desirable goal, consider a dynamic grassroots process, designed to reach out to parents in a way that empowers and challenges them to form Strong Catholic Families. Please call and join us to move forward to building Strong Catholic Families.
