Celebrating 210 Years: The Founding of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate

On January 25, Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, the Congregation of Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate (O.M.I.) celebrates the 210th Anniversary of its founding by Saint Eugene de Mazenod.

The founding of the Society of the Missionaries of Provence was announced in October 1815, but it was only on January 25, 1816, that Fathers de Mazenod, Tempier, and probably Icard came together in Aix-en-Provence, Southern France, and began life in common. In February of 1816, they were joined by Fathers Deblieu and Mie.

The Founder celebrated this anniversary each year. On January 24, 1831, he wrote to Father Mille and the novices and scholastics at Billens: "Tomorrow I celebrate the anniversary of the day, fifteen years ago, when I left my mother's house to go and set up house at the Mission. Father Tempier had taken possession of it some days before... My camp-bed was placed in the small passageway which leads to the library; it was then a large room used as a bedroom for Father Tempier and one other... It was also our community room. One lamp was all our lighting, and when it was time for bed, it was placed in the doorway to give light to all three of us. The table that adorned our refectory was one plank laid alongside another, resting on two old barrels. We never enjoyed the blessing of such poverty since the time we took the vow."

As we mark this special anniversary, we unite with the entire Oblate Congregation and DeMazenodian Family worldwide in gratitude to God and deep affection for our beloved Congregation. May this occasion inspire renewed commitment to the mission and charism of St. Eugene de Mazenod.

Thank You, St. Casimir volunteers!

Thank you to all of you who decorated the church for the Christmas season. The church was so beautiful, warm and welcoming. The Christmas décor enhanced the celebrations and left a heartwarming glow with those who participated in our beautiful and joyous celebrations of the Christmas season.

A huge THANK YOU goes out to all of those who helped take down the Christmas decorations and those who watered the flowers and removed the window candles and swags. You all just pitched right in and took the decorations down and put them away. Your hard work, expertise and dedication to the parish are greatly appreciated.

Cindy Pasiuk and Fr. Cyprian
