A Grace-Filled Jubilee in Rome: The 200th Anniversary of the Approbation of Oblate Constitutions and Rules (p.4)

On the morning of February 17, we gathered in the OMI General House chapel for meditation and extended adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. It was a profoundly quiet and grace-filled time. Together with many who share in the charism of St. Eugène de Mazenod, we gave thanks for the approval of our Congregation and the Rules by the Pope in this very city 200 years ago to the day. That moment felt both historical and deeply personal. During the group sharing that followed, we spoke about our vocation stories and reflected on what it means to be an Oblate today. For me, it was a moment of rediscovery and gratitude for Oblates that shaped my vocation path in the past and continue to do it now.

That evening, about one hundred Oblates and members of the Charismatic Family gathered for solemn Mass in the chapel, celebrated by Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle. He is pro-prefect for the Section for First Evangelization and New Particular Churches of the Dicastery for Evangelization. It felt like a true spiritual banquet marking our Bicentennial. The festive dinner that followed only deepened the sense of fraternity and family.

Among the other unforgettable moments was the concelebration of the Eucharist at the tomb of Saint Peter, in the Vatican Necropolis beneath Saint Peter's Basilica on February 19. Fr. Luis Ignacio Rois Alonso, O.M.I., Superior General, presided over that special Mass.

Celebrating there, in such silence and closeness to the roots of the Church, moved me deeply. Knowing that St. Eugène de Mazenod himself had celebrated Mass at that very tomb of the first Pope made it even more powerful. After the Eucharist in the Scavi, we visited the tombstone of Pope Leo XII in one of the side apses of St. Peter's Basilica. We prayed there and thanked him for the grace of approval of our OMI Constitution and Rules in 1826.
