

The Hungers with Which We Live

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Tenzin Kiyosaki is a former Buddhist nun who now works as an interfaith chaplain at a medical center in Los Angeles. There she tends to the spiritual needs of patients who have less than six months to live. When her brother asked her what it was that dying patients talk about, it led to her book The Three Regrets: Inspirational Stories and Practical Advice for Love and Forgiveness at Life's End. The three regrets she lists are: 1) I did not live my life of dreams; 2) I did not share my love; and 3) I did not forgive. All too easily it seems we become preoccupied with what in the end becomes peripheral to what we really seek in life.

Today we tell the story of how Jesus' life of loving others came to its final conclusion, one of sacrificial love to the point of death. He came to reveal how such love is an essential dimension of the presence of God at the heart of every human life, and a cornerstone of the kingdom of God he proclaimed and to which he gave his life.

To the end, even on the cross, forgiveness was an essential aspect of his life of loving others. The very realities of what Jesus' life was all about are the same hungers we so often fail to recognize as we live our lives, though it is what he continually preached. Coming face to face with our own mortality seems to make his message most real. ●

Jesus humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.

PHILIPPIANS 2:8

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, year B.

GOSPEL REFLECTION:

This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. There are two Gospels proclaimed at Mass today. The first Gospel tells of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. In the second Gospel, we hear Mark's account about the events that led to Jesus' passion and death. We learn that Jesus is the Son of God and that he died on the cross to save us from our sins. Through his sacrifice, we all have the promise of life forever in heaven with God.

- ◇ It's never too late! – Register your child or grand child for Religious Education. RE classes are available for all students in Grades K-8 at no cost to the family. Registration forms are available in the parish office and at class.
- ◇ RE Classes – Classes resume TODAY after Mass.
- ◇ Choir (Adult/Children) – No audition necessary. Please call the office at (928) 428-0149 and leave your name and a contact number. Come join us!
- ◇ Weekly Assignment – Throughout Holy Week, take a moment to think about how much Jesus loves us. Remember the events of Jesus' passion and death as you meditate on the cross. Say an extra prayer for those who are sick or feel alone and abandoned. Ask God to help our Church to reach out to those people so that they can feel the comfort and assurance of God's love.

Early on the FIRST day of the WEEK, when it was still DARK, MARY and Mary MAGDALEN and some other women went to bring spices to Jesus' TOMB. They wondered who would roll away the STONE. But when they got there, they saw it was already moved, and the tomb was EMPTY! They ran and told the disciples. SIMON PETER and the other DISCIPLE, whom Jesus LOVED, ran to the tomb and found it as the women had said. The LINEN CLOTHS were lying there, and the NAPKIN that had been on Jesus' head was folded up. Then they began to BELIEVE, because they hadn't known the SCRIPTURE that said that Jesus must RISE from the DEAD.

Use of the Hall: Rental for the hall is $50.00 along with a $50.00 refundable deposit. Deposit will be refunded as long as the kitchen is cleaned, trash is thrown, all tables and chairs wiped off, floors cleared of large debris and bathrooms tidied.

Dear Padre,

I am the divorced mother of three young children. My daughter is making her first Communion and I want to go to Communion with her. But I haven't been to Mass in three years because of my divorce. I am nervous and embarrassed about returning to the Church. What can I do?

Sharing in your daughter's preparation for holy Communion is a lovely desire and a good chance to look closely at your own faith; it may be the "little push" you need. She needs to see in you someone who has faith and is committed to the Church. Taking your children to Mass each Sunday is a good start.

You mentioned that you haven't been to church in three years because of your divorce. You may be confused about the teachings of the Church concerning divorce. Divorced Catholics are still full members of the Church and can receive holy Communion. If you have remarried outside the Church, it is a more complicated issue, yet not hopeless.

Since you haven't been to Mass in three years, the first step is to talk to your pastor or another priest with whom you feel comfortable. Be honest. Explain why you have stayed away from the Church. Then set up a time to go to confession. And please don't be ashamed or embarrassed about coming back to church. No matter how long it has been, the Church welcomes you home. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

What is most amazing about the Lord and his Passover? It is the fact that he achieves glory through humiliation. He triumphs by accepting suffering and death, things that we, in our quest for admiration and success, would rather avoid. Jesus—as St. Paul tells us—"emptied himself... he humbled himself" (Philippians 2:7–8).
