

A Call from the Wild

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Sometimes, as if by divine instinct, life draws us into new and uncharted lands, a kind of “call of the wild.” It happens when we leave childhood, when (if) we leave the single life, and when we grieve the loss of love or health. The call, then, is also to trust that God will walk with us and show us the way through the coming wilderness.

At other times that wild divine instinct is to go where we would rather not go, but somehow we also sense we must, if for no other reason than to be true to ourselves. It happened to Jesus, as this week’s Gospel begins with our Lord picking up where John the Baptist left off. “When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee....From that time on he began to preach” (Matthew 4:12, 17). Who could know where that divine instinct would lead him?

Sometimes that call pulls us into what life needs at this moment, whether we choose it or not. It may come in the face of the premature death of a spouse that finds us raising a young family alone, or it may be an aging spouse’s needs that require us to be a caregiver. It may be the daily grind of a job we can’t stand but have to keep for one reason or another, or it may be no job at all that forces us to reorganize our lives. The call of God may come out of the blue and from the many wilds of life. ●

Reflect

Have you ever felt called to go where you did not want to go?

How did faith help you decide what to do?

As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers....He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him.

MATTHEW 4:21B–22

WE ARE THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

2023 Annual Catholic Appeal

Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Mark 16:15

In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus' last words to his apostles point to His saving mission and to their mission to be witnesses of his death and glorious resurrection and to proclaim the good news of salvation to all the world. These early followers of Jesus actively cared for the poor, orphans, travelers, and provided Church leaders with whatever was needed to spread the good news of the Gospel. As Jesus' followers and friends today, we too are called to care for one another and to share the good news of the Gospel with the world.

Next weekend, the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal, WE ARE THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH, begins at our parish. The ACA helps our educational, charitable, and spiritual ministries bring the heart and hands of Jesus to children, young adults, families, and neighbors through-out our Diocese. Please prayerfully consider making a joyful sacrificial contribution to this year's Appeal.

We are the Mission of the Church!

Please make your gift today at www.cathfnd.org/donateAnnual

Catholic Appeal Prayer

Heavenly Father,

when your only begotten Son Jesus Christ rose from the dead, he commissioned his followers to "go and make disciples of all nations."

You remind us that through our Baptism

we are made sharers in this mission of the Church.

We know that all we have is received from your hand.

You call us to be stewards of all you have entrusted to us.

Help us to always use your gifts wisely and teach us to share them generously.

Remind us that we are the mission of the Church

Empower us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be courageous and zealous in bearing witness to the Gospel and in caring for one another, so that the mission entrusted to the Church
may find new and fruitful expressions that bring life and light to the world.

Amen.

Jesus Tells us to Repent

Today we hear about Jesus beginning His mission of preaching and healing the sick. The very first thing He tells the people is that they should repent from their sins.

Why do we need to repent of our sins? Why don't we just stop thinking about the bad things we did and start trying to be good?

Well, pretend your soul is like a garden. When you sin, it's like making a big hole in the ground. You can't grow flowers in a hole, and someone might trip on it and make the hole bigger. That's what can happen with sins too- little sins can cause bigger ones.

When you are sorry for your sins and go to confession it's like filling in the holes and planting flowers where they used to be. Keep your soul like a good garden and make sure you don't have any holes in it!

Dear Padre,

Could you explain “lead us not into temptation” from the Lord’s Prayer? That doesn’t seem like something God would do.

Part of the problem lies in the translation of the Greek verb. Lead is the word used, but it means a request that we not enter into or yield to temptation (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2846). As we read in the Letter of James, “No one experiencing temptation should say, ‘I am being tempted by God’; for God is not subject to temptation to evil, and he himself tempts no one” (James 1:13).

Pope Francis agrees with you that this translation is confusing. He has approved changing this one line of the Lord’s Prayer from “lead us not into temptation” to “do not let us fall into temptation.” This wording places the focus on us and our activity, as the original Greek implies. It is a plea that we do nothing to put ourselves in the way of temptation or give in to temptation.

This change will appear in the latest edition of the Italian Roman Missal, but there are no plans now to change the wording in English-speaking countries. If you would like to read more about the Lord’s Prayer, the Catechism includes an article that goes into a lot of detail (CCC 2777–2865). ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

I beg the Lord to grant us more politicians who are... disturbed by the state of society, the people, the lives of the poor! It is vital that government leaders and financial leaders...[work] to ensure that all citizens have dignified work, education, and health care. Why not...ask [God] to inspire their plans?
