

[Jesus said,] "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

JOHN 6:51

Food for the Day

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Just as the darkest of nights brings out stars we might never notice otherwise, so is it that when we find ourselves lost in the dark of life's deserts, the slightest kindnesses can bring us to a brief oasis in a day otherwise oppressive. Most often such moments come as gifts, unearned—even undeserved. Yet they are blessings to us.

Psychologists tell us that if we find ourselves down in the dumps and depressed, we can find hope by naming three things that happened that day that were pure gifts—a phone call from a friend, a compliment, a free cup of coffee, a good bill of health from the doctor. Remembering them at the end of the day and giving thanks for them may not solve the issues that burden us, but they can put them in perspective, reminding us that life is a mix of both the good as well as the not so good.

Moses urged the people to recall all that God had done for them—bringing them out of Egypt, guiding them through the desert, leading them to water, and feeding them with manna. Amid their grumbling, their remembering offered them hope and the courage to go on.

Thus, what psychologists suggest is what God has been doing for us for thousands of years—that God feeds us daily in large and small ways, all without our deserving it but out of his great generosity. Remember, then, how God has fed you. ●

Reflect

Tonight, will you think about your day and give thanks for three ways you were blessed?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. In John's Gospel today, Jesus says, "I am the living bread." Jesus is "the living bread" who saves us from sin and gives us life forever with God in heaven. Jesus gives us this special gift in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Let us share in this sacrament so Jesus can nourish our souls and strengthen our faith.

Diocese Celebrates Historic Ordination

As Catholics from all around the Diocese of Tucson, from out of state, and even a few from other countries took their seats, all eyes were on the lookout and following these five brave men who were prepared to offer their lives for Christ's Church. The pews were filled with nuns, priests, deacons, the young and the old – hundreds of faithful lay and religious, many of them praying their rosaries while waiting to witness the miracle and fullness of the fruit of their prayers. Feelings of admiration, thanksgiving, and awe toward these five young men were mutually felt by all present. As the time drew closer and the crowd grew denser, many people could be spotted pulling out their phones to try to capture these fleeting, historical moments.

At long last, Vocations Director Fr. Alan Valencia called all the joyous conversations to a halt by asking everyone to “gather our thoughts and calm our spirits”. There wasn’t enough seating in the Cathedral to accommodate all who wished to witness the Ordination. After a few moments of arranging and announcing logistics, standing guests were ushered to overflow seating prepared at the Pastoral Center next door with a live streaming of the event. Then, to the tune of “Laudate Dominum”, the Knights preceded the procession of bishops, priests, deacons, and the five elect down the aisle to the altar.

It had been some 20 years since the Diocese of Tucson has had five men ordained at once. This giddy anticipation is how the morning of the Priest Ordination will forever be remembered. They are known as the Ordinandi: Deacon Jesus Gomez, Deacon Alan Soto Hopkins, Deacon Abundio Colazo Lopez, Deacon Luis Pablo Ochoa Escárrega, and Deacon Roberto Villablanca, Jr. The five elect are diverse – a nod to our multicultural diocese; four are Hispanic, one is Filipino, all are bilingual and in their 20’s and 30’s. The five elect spent between 7 and 13 years in formation in the Seminary This giddy anticipation is how the morning of the Priest Ordination will forever be remembered. St Rose of Lima Religious Education Prayers: Be sure to say prayers nightly/daily, so your child learns to talk to God in formal and informal prayer. Practice the prayers for confession, so children know them by heart.

For those children not fully prepared to receive the sacrament they were preparing for, parents are strongly encouraged to continue working with them on the prayers and any other requirement they were missing. You do not have to wait until next year. When you think they are ready or have met the requirements, call me at 928-965-5223 after 3PM.

Please bring your children to Mass with you weekly and remind them to continue collecting bulletins with their name and next year's grade, plus Father's signature, starting now. Anyone preparing for a sacrament in 2023-24 needs the bulletins, but it goes without saying that all children and families should be attending Mass weekly.

Registration for 2023-24 will begin in August. The Committee will meet in June (sometime after June 24th) to plan a calendar for next year that most closely combines the Safford and Thatcher school calendars with our RE Calendar needs.

Vacation Bible School (VBS) will be from June 26-30. Watch the bulletin for more information and how to sign up. it is a great way to learn more about God and have lots of fun. Don't miss out. Have a blessed summer.

Registration for Vacation Bible School (VBS) will be held after every mass on Sunday until June 11, 2023. There are forms in the back of the church you may fill out and leave at the office.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

St. Rose of Lima Gift Shop

In the Parish Office
Open Monday—Friday
9:00 a.m.—4:15 p.m.

Dear Padre,

I'm eighty-one. When I received first Communion, the nuns told me not to chew the holy Eucharist, but to let it melt in my mouth. Is it wrong to chew it?

It is permitted to chew the host or to let it dissolve in your mouth. The hosts today must be unleavened and made only of flour and water, making it easier for some communicants to dissolve it in their mouths. Unleavened bread doesn't mold or spoil and is more suitable than leavened bread for exposition and adoration. However, for nearly 800 years, the Church used leavened wheat bread for the Eucharist before unleavened wheat bread was introduced into the Roman rite. Communicants would have had to chew the Eucharist before the modern waferlike host evolved.

Your first Communion instruction on the proper way to consume the Eucharist was an effort to instill in you a deep reverence for the Real Presence of Christ. This profound respect for our Lord in the form of consecrated bread and wine is still desired by the Church. For example, at Mass the priest "reverently consumes the Body of Christ" and "reverently partakes of the Blood of Christ" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 158). Similarly, "when receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister" (GIRM 160). Today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is a special day for us to remember Jesus' gift of his own body that we might be nourished and strengthened for this life's journey. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

We who go to Mass can ask: What is it that we bring to the world? Is it our sadness and bitterness, or the joy of the Lord? Do we receive Holy Communion and then carry on complaining, criticizing and feeling sorry for ourselves? This does not improve anything, whereas the joy of the Lord can change lives.
