Who We Are

We are St. Sebastian Council of Catholic Women. We are today's women of all ages from different walks of life who are passionate about social justice, legislation, global affairs, spirituality, leadership and service.

As members of the National Council of Catholic Women, Florida Council of Catholic Women and the Palm Beach Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, we are a nationwide organization of over 3,000 affiliations representing millions of Catholic Women.

We are women who assist our Pastor in the needs of the parish through service projects and financial support.

We are women who will value your time, gifts and talents. We are women who become Sisters in Council and work as a "Team".

We Are A Council Who Welcomes You!

How We Work

Guided by our Mission Statement, we act through our membership to support, empower and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership and service.

We function in conjunction with all levels of Council, especially Palm Beach Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

~ Promoting ~

Spirituality- creating a community of God's people who are educated and dynamic in their faith.

Leadership- empowering members through leadership, enrichment grants and personal development.

Service- involving members in responding to the needs of our own communities in programs that affect the lives and well-being of all.

Legislation- providing information about legislative issues and encouraging involvement and social responsibility.

Some of What We Offer

Opportunities to participate in National, State, and Diocesan workshops through programs, conferences and conventions. Connecting with other women and sharing common concerns. Parish stewardship of time and talent by participating in projects and ministries for the support of our Church community.
