Peter's Pence
Collection
Be a sign of hope

From his first appearance after his election in May 2025, Pope Leo XIV has called upon Catholics to live in peace & unity with one another within the Church & to share this invitation to peace & unity with the whole world. Throughout history, Catholics have shared the peace & unity of Christ with the world by proclaiming the Gospel & performing works of mercy that bring comfort to the poor & vulnerable.

For centuries, Catholics have expressed our unity with the People by giving to the Peter's Pence Collection, which supports his mission to proclaim Christ's message of unity & peace with the world. Our gifts or the Holy Father are "concrete signs of hope" to Pope Leo XIV that fulfill the two aims of Peter's Pence: "1) To support the Hol Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human developments, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicastery's, bodies & organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and 2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people & families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters & wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

We will have a second collection at all Masses the weekend of June 20-21. All electronic givers can donate through their E-giving account (Peter's Pence can be found in the fund drop-down box).

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website.

Thank you for continuing to be a sign of hope by supporting this collection.

Interested in Vocations?

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 14, 2026

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." (Matthew 9:37)

Jesus calls laborers to work in His abundant vineyard. Priests and religious men and women are called to serve God's people with dedication and joy. As members of the Church, we are invited to pray for an increase in holy vocations so that more may answer this call. Could God be calling you to serve as a priest or in consecrated life? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at 804-359-5661 or via email: vocations@richmonddiocese.org

Opportunities for the 250th Anniversary of the United States from the Diocese of Richmond

As we approach the summer months there are an increasing number of events and resources that center around the 250th anniversary of the United States. The Catholic Church is also providing us with numerous opportunities to participate in this historic moment for our nation.

Prayer and Works of Mercy

The USCCB is encouraging parishes and individuals to participate in moments of adoration and mercy leading into the July 4th holiday.

Consecration and Enthronement of the Sacred Heart

Families can also find resources on the USCCB page. Please visit <https://www.usccb.org/weholdthesetruths> for more information about how you can participate in observing our nation's 250th anniversary.

I invite you to pray for our Church, the Diocese of Richmond, and the United States of America as we celebrate throughout this year.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I asked what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because she was deeply moved to act.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "moved with compassion" for the crowd, for they were "like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit's gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ's. Then get to work.

— Father John Muir
