An important note about Christmas Masses:

As you're all aware, Christmas is a time when we host many visitors. For that reason, it is very important we are welcoming. Please understand that if you would like to sit with particular people at Mass, you all need to be seated together at the same time; we ask that you do not save seats. All people who enter the worship space should be able to quickly and easily find an available seat. We are all looking forward to celebrating the birth of our Savior together and pray that our community will radiate Christ's love to all who join us. Thank you for your cooperation.

The budget is divided evenly over the 12 month fiscal period. Please bear in mind that all donations do not come weekly or monthly. The parish receives quarterly, semi-annual, and annual donations.

Parish Survey Results

Thank you to everyone who responded to the parish survey regarding permanent name tags. 150 families responded, which is the typical amount we receive from surveys (between 10 to 12% of the parish). The majority of responses (56%) were not in favor name tags and therefore the parish will not be implementing them.

A second collection will be taken up at all Christmas Masses for Commonwealth Catholic Charities. You can donate online as well. Thank you for your generosity.

Join Flocknote

With Flocknote, we are able to text everyone who joins or just a specific group. Join and keep in touch with us via text and email. Text "GABRIELVA" to 84576.

A letter from Mike and Thelma Bryner about our recent donations of Thanksgiving meals to CCHASM:

Dear Fellow Parishioners:

To say "Thank You" simply does not address the heartfelt gratitude that we heard upon delivering the 60 Thanksgiving Meal kits and 60 grocery store gift cards that you, the Saint Gabriel Family, provided to CCHASM at the Chesterfield County Fairgrounds on Wednesday, November 19th. CCHASM stands for Chesterfield Colonial Heights Alliance for Social for Social Ministry.

When told that this delivery was from Saint Gabriel, there was a huge smile on the face of the two staff ladies at the reception table. They both explained that the Saint Gabriel family is near and dear to their hearts as this, our community, shares and supports so many families on a regular basis. They do rely on us to assist those most in need.

Something else they shared was how some individuals we support, due to their individual circumstances, live in a nearby food desert. If it were not for your generosity each month when we have Food Pantry collection, there would be some families struggling more in our local area than we know. Thank you always for your generous support of those in need of food (and prayers) for daily living.

Please remember you don't have to wait for food pantry weekend to make a donation. You can do a monetary donation through E-giving or by using one of our food pantry envelopes on the Welcome Table. You can also drop off food items (please check the list on our website) at the parish office.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: We go to Mass. We go to Confession. We pray. We read Scripture. In doing all these things, again and again, we go out to the desert. Why? What are we expecting to see?

What We See in the Desert

I've always wanted to see a real desert.

I know all about frigid, snowy winters and warm, wet summers. I grew up on rich soil that yields lush vegetation and bountiful harvests. But I've never experienced a desert, not in my own country or abroad, and I'm curious.

I know there must be something magical about the desert for it to feature so heavily in Scripture, for it to provide a backdrop to so many crucial moments of salvation history. The Israelites following the cloud, the temptation of Christ, the voice crying out: "Prepare the way for the Lord."

Why do these moments have to happen in a desert? Why do they make so much less sense in a tropical rainforest or a verdant forest?

I think it's because the desert doesn't have anything to offer us, at first glance. No one longs for the physical sensation of a dry heat and a beating sun. But the vast emptiness and the almost mystical harshness — even if we don't desire and delight in it, this is a setting that we understand, somehow, intrinsically. We know it deep within our soul. God is there.

We go to Mass. We go to Confession. We pray. We read Scripture. In doing all these things, again and again, we go out to the desert.

Why? What are we expecting to see?

If we expect to be entertained, we will be disappointed. If we expect reassurance, we will be disappointed. If we expect to feel pleasant and safe and sheltered, we will be disappointed.

The desert is there to challenge us. The desert is there to show us who we are, and who we can be.

So go.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Our prayer group has been reading the lives of some saints, and we were struck by how some of them thought they were such sinners. Why would someone so holy think they had such serious sin?

Answer:

As Professional athletes practice the fundamentals of their sport over and over again, reaching for better form, consistency, and performance. They focus on the basics, review past performances, and visualize greater success. Practice makes better, if not perfect!

Spiritual masters such as the saints also looked for perfection. They practiced their faith in the search for holiness, grace, and virtue. Through sacraments, prayer, study, good works, and penance, they raised their level of awareness and their sensitivity to the presence of God, the demands of the Gospel, and the workings of the Holy Spirit. They examined their consciences daily, reviewing the day for moments of failure and times that they could have been more virtuous in one way or another. They resolved to do better, be more attentive, and alert!

Therefore, anything that would distract them or interfere with their relationship with God would be like a small black spot on a bright white wall — you can't miss it! The great saints were aware of sin and the presence of evil because they were so tuned into the struggle between good and evil that was fought in their own lives, hearts, and souls.
