Social Justice

Join our Prison Ministry Team!

Many people think that prison ministry only means face-to-face interaction with those who are incarcerated. However, there are many meaningful ways to serve; each offering compassion, dignity and the love of Jesus to those in need.

Please consider:

- Supporting the Kairos Weekend

Kairos is a 4 day spiritual program held twice a year at a local correctional facility. Its mission is to share Jesus' transforming love and forgiveness with inmates. You can also support the program by baking cookies to be shared during the weekend or signing up for a 30 minute prayer slot to prayer for the Kairos team and inmates.

- Volunteering at Mercy Mall and the Cases of Hope Program

This program involves packing a suitcase with clothing and toiletries for individuals being released from jail or prison. You can also write an encouraging note or prayer to be included in the suitcase. (This can be given to a Prison Ministry team member) These suitcases and cards offer them love, hope and support as they re-enter society.

- Cases of Hope Drive

We are hosting our 3rd annual Cases of Hope during Lent this year. Please consider donating gently used suitcases and full sized toiletries. We are extending the drive this year to support the Imagine the Freedom program that assists recently released inmates with housing. New twin sized sheets, pillows and bedding are greatly needed. Items can be brought to masses during the season of Lent.

- Forgiveness Class at Chesterfield Jail

This is an opportunity to meet with inmates and discuss the importance of self forgiveness and the love of Jesus.

- Write Letters of encouragement to inmates

Share scripture, uplifting thoughts, prayers, love and hope through handwritten letters to those who are incarcerated

Please contact Anita Schilling (804) 591-5955 or Karen Curtis (804) 334-3099 if you would like to join our Prison Ministry team. Meetings are held at church on the third Wednesday of the month at 6 pm.

"Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them." - Hebrews 13:3

"I needed clothes and you clothed me. I was in prison and you visited me." -Matthew 25:35-36

Mini Reflection: If any four-word sentence encapsulates what we can expect from the Christian life, it is this: God had other plans.

Other Plans

I don't know exactly what kind of life Mary and Joseph envisioned when they were first betrothed — back in those simple times when they were just like any other couple who had hopes, dreams and no angels telling them what to do.

Whatever their plans were, I think it's safe to say that the future God had in store for Mary and Joseph was not one either of them expected. I would imagine they both anticipated something a little quieter. A little more stable (no pun intended). A little less tumultuous.

It exhausts me simply to read through the chaos of their movements in today's Gospel. Flee to Egypt, return to Israel (but not Judea! Herod's son is there! Divert to Galilee! Divert!). Settle in Nazareth (let me remind you, this is all happening with a baby in tow, and without the aid of a minivan). Take a deep breath, but don't get too comfortable — now it's almost time to lose your kid in Jerusalem. Then you'll have about 20 years off before he starts raising people from the dead, and that's when things start to get really crazy.

The story of the Holy Family is the ultimate example of the phrase "God had other plans." If any four-word sentence encapsulates what we can expect from the Christian life, it is this.

I thought I was meant for that job, but God had other plans. I thought I would live in this place, but God had other plans. I thought I was supposed to become this person, but God had other plans.

We can do all the right things. We can make all the right choices. We can say, over and over again until our voice wears out, "Thy will be done." But all we can know for sure is that God has other plans.

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Sirach emphasizes the importance of children honoring and respecting their parents. What are some of your favorite memories of your parents?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Colossians that families should show mutual respect and love toward one another. How do you encourage these virtues in your family?

Gospel:

We hear how the Holy Family faced some very dangerous circumstances early on. Can you think of some challenges your family has had to overcome?

Interested in Vocations?

Feast of the Holy Family - December 28, 2025

"Rise, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel." (Matthew 2:20)

Joseph's obedience to God protected the Holy Family. In marriage, spouses are called to protect and nurture each other in faith. Reflect on how God might be guiding you to build a family rooted in His love. Pray and ask God how you can better serve and protect your family this week.
