Review of Committee Reports

- Art and Environment September 13th Fr. Jay and the A & E committee met with BARC at Redeemer. The committee toured the entire building, including the offices and Genesis Hall. Barc privately met to discuss what they saw. Barc will present the plan to the Bishop then get back to us with their recommendations They asked for the entire square footage of the building. We are on hold until BARC gives us direction. Future steps would include feasibility study before capital campaign.
- Evangelization – Continue working on the “Rebuilt” workbook. Continue to plan our October 6 workshop with Lavinia Spirito. Continue to plan for young adults and young parents. Shirley Husz was only parishioner to respond to helping with the Marty Haugen concert. Planning music workshop for next year.
