

Divine Renovation Workshop

On Saturday, August 11th, we hosted our inaugural Divine Renovation Workshop in our Rectory Assembly which marked the official beginning of our Divine Renovation process at IC. Our warmest thanks to Anne Chrzan who graciously served as our spirited presenter, guiding us through the workshop, ably assisted by Jennifer Delvaux. During the workshop, Fr. Robert took the opportunity to reveal to all present his inspiring vision for the future of our parish. (If you missed the workshop, hopefully you were blessed to witness Fr. Robert's homily delivered at several of our Masses last weekend featuring his impassioned appeal detailing that same vision.) We truly appreciate all of our parishioners who have decided to walk with us on this journey of faith by reading Fr. Mallon's book: Divine Renovation and attending our initial workshop: Stephanie Argamaso, our Deacon candidate Michael Bednarz, Mary Dosek, Chris Epstein, Katie Kelly, Nancy Kremer, Jack & Margaret Kroll, Amy Magruder, Marcia Mally, Leanna Miehlich, Colleen Mulligan, Mario Orrico, Colleen Reppen Shiel, Michael Tom, Suzanne Witz, and Rita Zambon. Also in attendance, representing our Parish Staff and lending their support to the proceedings: Deacon Rick & Carol Moritz, Deacon Robert Carlton, and Melissa Anna. Many thanks as well to our talented chef (& Music Director) Scott Will who kindly prepared our delicious lunch (ably assisted by Bernadette "Cookie" Anna.)

If your curiosity is piqued and you would like to join us as we walk this journey together (and we truly hope to welcome many more of you along the way), please contact our Parish Office and reserve your copy of Divine Renovation today! Our next Divine Renovation Workshop will be held on Saturday, September 8th from 9:00 A.M.-12:00 Noon (with lunch to follow the conclusion of the workshop.)
