

Youth Ministry Intern at Holy Name Catholic Church

Job Type: One Year Paid Internship, Part-Time (primary evenings and weekends), with housing or living stipend provided

Location: Steamboat Springs, Colorado

URL: www.catholicsteamboat.com

Job Description

The Youth Ministry Intern will assist the Coordinator of Youth Ministry in planning and facilitating events for middle school and high school youth. These events will consist of weekly gatherings for large and small groups, as well as other less frequent events to be determined and mutually agreed upon. The Intern will learn principles and skills in youth ministry as a vital member of the parish team in this active and growing mountain community.

The ideal candidate will...

- Be an active Catholic modeling the love of Christ through his/her life, continually working to grow in faith through study, prayer, and sacraments in order to reflect the teaching of Jesus and His Church to all.
- Assist the Coordinate of Youth Ministry in creative planning and facilitating of youth activities to encourage personal and spiritual growth and foster a caring Christian community. Such activities may include:
 - weekly large group gatherings (includes public speaking/teaching) and small group discipleship formation.
 - potential service projects, mission trips, retreats and other prayer opportunities.
 - recreational outings (ie. ski trips, camping, hiking, etc.) and connecting with youth outside of parish events.
- Be present to interact with youth and the larger parish family at parish events and after the weekend Masses (Saturday evenings, Sunday mornings, and Sunday evenings).
- Communicate with parish staff and adult volunteers to support and develop the Youth Ministry program.
- Be able to incorporate technology and social media to welcome and involve all active and inactive youth.

How to Apply
